ARTICLE 3: RECOGNITION AND UNION SECURITY

- 3.01 The Employer recognizes the United Nurses of Alberta, Local #2, #117, #135, #143, #145, #168, #170, #189 and #215 as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent on behalf of all Employees when employed in direct nursing care or instruction therein with respect to wages, hours of work, vacations, Named Holidays and all other terms and conditions of employment.
- 3.02 The Union shall exercise its rights pursuant to this Collective Agreement in a fair and reasonable manner.
- 3.03 No Employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement which may be in conflict with the terms of this Agreement.
- 3.04 The Employer agrees to deduct from the earnings of each Employee covered by this Collective Agreement as a condition of employment monthly amounts equal to the monthly membership dues and Local levies as advised by the Local. Such deductions shall be forwarded to the Provincial Office of United Nurses of Alberta, not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following and shall be accompanied by a list of names of the Employees from whom deductions have been taken and the amounts of the deductions and the gross earnings of each Employee.
- 3.05 The Local shall give the Employer thirty (30) days written notice of any change in the amount of Union dues deductions to be made by the Employer and the effective date of such change.
- 3.06 (a) A representative of the Union shall have the right to make a presentation of up to fifteen (15) minutes at the orientation of new Employees with respect to the structure of the Local as well as the rights, responsibilities and benefits under the Collective Agreement provided, however, that attendance at the presentation shall not be compulsory, and further provided that a representative of the Employer may be present at such presentation.
- (b) The Employer shall advise the Local of the time, place, and the number of Employees expected at orientation.
- 3.07 The Union shall provide each Employee and all new Employees with a copy of the Collective Agreement.

- 3.08 The Employer shall show on the Employee's T-4 slip the total amount of Union dues deducted for the taxation year.
- 3.09 The Employer shall advise the Union of newly hired and terminated Employees in writing.
- 3.10 The Employer will prepare the Collective Agreement for the parties' signatures upon written notification of ratification and the Union shall subsequently arrange to photocopy/print the Collective Agreement. The cost of photocopying/printing the Collective Agreement shall be shared equally by the Union and the Employer.
- 3.11 Where a provision of the Collective Agreement refers to a requirement for some form of communication to the Union or Local to be in writing, such requirement is satisfied by the provisions of such in an electronic form.
- 3.12 The Union shall endeavour to notify the Employer in writing of the names of the UNA Labour Relations Officer and Local Executive and within two (2) calendar weeks of any changes.

ARTICLE 4: MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 4.01 The Local acknowledges that it shall be the right of the Employer to operate and manage the business of the Nursing Home in all respects, unless otherwise provided by this Collective Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employer reserves all rights not specifically restricted or limited by the provisions of this Collective Agreement including the right to:
- (a) maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
 - (b) make or alter from time to time, rules and regulations to be observed by Employees which are not in conflict with any provision of this Collective Agreement;
 - (c) direct the working force and to create new job classifications and work units and to determine the number of Employees, if any, needed from time to time in any work unit(s) or job classification(s) and to determine whether or not a position will be continued or declared redundant;
 - (d) hire, promote, transfer, layoff, recall and to demote, discipline, suspend or discharge for just cause.
- 4.02 The Employer shall exercise its rights pursuant to this Collective Agreement in a fair and reasonable manner.

ARTICLE 5: BULLETIN BOARD

5.01 The Employer shall continue to provide a bulletin board in a reasonably accessible location for the exclusive use of the Union and for the sole purpose of posting information related to the Union's activities. The Employer reserves the right to require posted material damaging to the Employer be removed.

ARTICLE 6: NO DISCRIMINATION

6.01 There shall be no discrimination, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced by either party in respect of any Employee by reason of race, colour, creed, ancestry, place of origin, source of income, political or religious affiliation, gender identity and gender expression, age, physical disability, marital or family status, sexual orientation, mental disability nor by reason of membership or non-membership or activity in the Union, nor in respect of an Employee or the Employer exercising any right conferred under this Collective Agreement or any law of Canada or Alberta.

ARTICLE 7: HOURS OF WORK

- 7.01 (a) Regular hours of work for Full-time Employees shall be:
- (i) seven and three quarter (7 3/4) consecutive hours per day;
 - (ii) seventy-seven point five hours (77.5) bi-weekly;
- and shall exclude a one-half (1/2) hour lunch period but include two (2) fifteen (15) minute coffee breaks per day.
- (b) An Employee recalled to duty during his/her meal period or rest period shall, if possible, be provided with a full meal period or rest period, as the case may be, later in his/her shift. In the event that this is not possible, he/she shall be paid for such at two times (2X) his/her basic hourly rate of pay. Meal periods or rest periods shall not occur within the first or last hour of the shift.
- (c) Notwithstanding that the meal period is to be excluded in the calculation of regular hours of work, if the Employer requires an Employee to be readily available for duty during his/her meal period, he/she shall be so advised in advance and paid for that meal period at his/her basic hourly rate of pay.
- (d) Rest periods and meal periods shall be scheduled at reasonable intervals. Where mutually agreeable, the breaks may be combined.
- 7.02 (a) Shift schedules shall be posted twelve (12) weeks in advance.

- (b) Notwithstanding clause 7.02(a), in the event of unusual circumstances, a shorter time period may be mutually agreed in writing between the Employer and the Union.
- 7.03
 - (a) Employees may exchange shifts or days off among themselves, provided that:
 - (i) the exchange is agreed in writing between the affected Employees; and
 - (ii) prior approval, which shall not unreasonably be withheld, of such exchange has been given by the Employer; and
 - (iii) such exchanges be recorded on the shift schedule by the Employer.
 - (b) The Employer shall not be responsible or liable for overtime rate claims and non-compliance with the terms of this Collective Agreement that might arise or accrue as a result of such exchange between Employees.
- 7.04 Requests for permanent shifts shall be considered on an individual basis and may be approved by the Director of Care, such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Where a request for a shift other than a day shift is denied, reasons shall be given.
- 7.05 Except in cases of emergency or by mutual agreement between an Employee and the Employer, shift schedules shall provide for:
 - (a) at least fifteen and three-quarter hours (15 3/4) off duty between shifts;
 - (b) at least two (2) consecutive days off per week averaged over the shift schedule period;
 - (c) no less than two (2) weekends off in any four (4) week period. "Weekend" shall mean Saturday and the following Sunday assuring a minimum of fifty-six (56) hours off duty;
 - (d) not more than seven (7) consecutive days of work.
 - (e) If an Employee is required to change shifts without receiving fifteen and three-quarter hours (15 3/4) off duty, he/she shall be entitled to pay at two times (2X) his/her basic hourly rate of pay for his/her first (1st) tour of duty on the new shift.
 - (f) An Employee scheduled to work any three (3) consecutive weekends shall be entitled to pay at two times (2X) his/her basic hourly rate of pay for all shifts worked during the third (3rd) weekend.
 - (g) Where possible there shall be forty-seven point seven five (47.75) hours off duty when changing from night shift to day shift.

- 7.06 Employees shall be aware that, in the course of their regular duties, they may be required to work on various shifts throughout the twenty-four (24) hour period of the day and any of the seven (7) days of the week. The first (1st) shift of the working day shall be the one where the majority of hours worked are between 2400 and 0800 hours.
- 7.07 Schedule Changes
- (a) If, in the course of a posted schedule, the Employer:
- (i) changes Employees' scheduled days off without giving fourteen (14) days notice of the change, they shall be paid two times (2X) their Basic Hourly Rate of Pay for all hours worked on what would otherwise have been their off-duty days.
 - (ii) changes an Employees' scheduled Shift, but not their scheduled days off, without giving fourteen (14) days notice of the change, they shall be paid two times (2X) their Basic Hourly Rate of Pay for all hours worked during the first Shift of the changed schedule.
- (b) Employees shall be notified of such changes in their schedule and such changes shall be recorded on the Shift Schedule.
- 7.08 Employees who are required to rotate shifts shall be assigned day duty approximately one-third (1/3) of the time unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Employee and the Employer, provided that in the event of an emergency or where unusual circumstances exist, an Employee may be assigned to such shift(s) as may be necessary. For the purpose of applying the foregoing an Employee will be deemed to have been assigned day duty for those periods of time absent on vacation or on or for a Named Holiday that would have, except for such absence, been day duty to which the Employee would have been assigned in accordance with the shift schedule. For the purposes of determining day duty, a day shift shall be considered to be a shift where the majority of the regularly scheduled shift falls between 0700 hours and 1500 hours.
- 7.09
- (a) In the event that an Employee reports for work as scheduled and is then requested by the Employer to leave, the Employee shall be compensated for the inconvenience by a payment equivalent to four (4) hours pay at the Employee's applicable rate of pay.
 - (b) In the event that an Employee is called and required to work, he/she shall be paid at two times (2X) the basic hourly rate of pay for all hours worked or four (4) hours, whichever is greater.
- 7.10 In the event that an Employee commences work as scheduled and is requested by the Employer to leave and then return for a later shift, the Employee shall be paid for four (4) hours or for the actual hours worked at the rate of two times (2X) his/her basic hourly rate of pay, whichever is greater.

- 7.11 (a) On the date fixed by proclamation, in accordance with the Daylight Saving Time Act, of conversion to Mountain Standard Time (MST), hours of work shall be extended to include the resultant additional hour with additional payment due therefore at the applicable overtime rate.
- (b) On the date fixed by said Act for the conversion to Mountain Daylight Time (MDT), the resultant reduction of one (1) hour in the shift involved shall be effected with the appropriate reduction in earnings.
- 7.12 There shall be no shifts of less than four (4) hours in length.

ARTICLE 8: OVERTIME

- 8.01 Overtime at the rate of two times (2X) the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay shall be paid to all Employees for:
- (a) all hours worked in excess of seven point seven five (7.75) consecutive hours;
 - (b) all hours worked in excess of seventy-seven point five (77.5) hours bi-weekly;
 - (c) any hours worked on an eighth (8th) and any subsequent consecutive day;
 - (d) all hours worked on unscheduled shifts unless written notice of any change or alteration of his/her shift schedule has been given to the Employee fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the changed or altered shift.
- 8.02 All overtime shall be subject to authorization by the Administrator or designate, however, in unforeseen circumstances or if the Employee cannot contact the Administrator or designate or in the case of the demand of the present workload, the Employee is to be paid at the overtime rate for overtime hours worked and he/she may be required to justify such overtime to the Administrator or designate.
- 8.03 Overtime may be taken in time off at a mutually acceptable time at the applicable overtime rate. Accumulated overtime credit not taken by March 1st in any given year shall be paid out at the applicable rate at the time it is being paid out. A written request to carry over lieu time for thirty (30) days following March 1 shall not be unreasonably denied.
- 8.04 Upon written request an Employee will be provided with the total of his/her accumulated overtime credits. Such requirement is satisfied by the provision of such in an electronic form.
- 8.05 In the event an Employee works a double shift, he/she shall be provided with a meal and snacks during the second shift at no cost, or if a meal cannot be provided, the Employee may order in a meal to a maximum cost of ten dollars ($10.00).

- 8.06 The Employer shall make available overtime forms which are to be signed with a copy given to the Employee.
- 8.07 The Employer shall endeavour to minimize the use of compulsory overtime.
- 8.08 Rest periods and meal periods shall be scheduled in accordance with clause 7.01.

ARTICLE 9: CALL BACK

- 9.01 If an Employee is called to work within fifteen and three quarters (15 $\frac{3}{4}$) hours of completing a shift, he/she shall be paid for two (2) hours or the actual time worked, whichever is greater at two times (2X) his/her basic hourly rate of pay.

ARTICLE 10: MILEAGE

- 10.01 When the Employer assigns duties to an Employee necessitating the use of the Employee's personal automobile, he/she shall be reimbursed at the rate of forty-four cents (44¢) per kilometer.

ARTICLE 11: PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- 11.01 (a) A new Employee shall serve a probationary period of 503.75 hours worked. The Employer shall provide an evaluation of each probationary Employee at least once prior to the completion of his/her probationary period. This does not preclude the Employer from terminating an Employee for cause during his/her probationary period without an evaluation.
- (b) During these evaluations the Employer shall notify the Employee, in writing, of any deficiencies, and where possible, provide the Employee an opportunity to correct them.
- 11.02 Article 4 and clause 23.04 notwithstanding, an Employee may be discharged during his/her probationary period without recourse to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Collective Agreement. At the request of the Union, a meeting will be held to discuss the reasons for the discharge of a probationary Employee.
- 11.03 An Employee shall receive a performance evaluation at the midway point of his/her probationary period and again prior to the completion of his/her probationary period.
- 11.04 The Employer shall provide a paid orientation program of thirty-eight point seven five (38.75) hours for all new Employees during the probationary period. Where an Employee informs the Director of Care that his/her orientation was not sufficient, the Employer will provide additional orientation. Where the Employee will be on rotating shifts, the first three (3) shifts shall be day shift and the Employee's first two (2) shifts on evenings and/or nights shall be under guidance or supervision.

ARTICLE 12: SENIORITY

- 12.01 (a) An Employee's seniority date shall be the date on which an Employee's continuous service commenced, including all periods of service as a Full-time, Part-time or Casual Employee contiguous to current employment.
- (b) Continuous service shall include:
- (i) service as a bargaining unit Employee in direct nursing or nursing instruction;
 - (ii) service with a UNA bargaining unit provided there was no break in the Employee's service for longer than six (6) months;
 - (iii) service with another Extendicare Employer in direct nursing care or nursing instruction provided there was no break in the Employee's service for longer than six (6) months.
- 12.02 Seniority shall be considered in determining:
- (a) preference of vacation time in accordance with the provisions of clause 17.04;
 - (b) layoffs and recalls in accordance with the provisions of clause 15.01;
 - (c) the filling of vacancies or making promotions and transfers within the bargaining unit in accordance with the provisions of clause 14.06;
 - (d) distribution of additional shifts to Part-time Employees.
- 12.03 An Employee shall lose all seniority if he/she terminated the employ with the Employer and is not reemployed within six (6) months or is laid off for greater than twelve (12) months without being recalled.
- 12.04 Seniority Lists
- (a) Provision of Seniority Lists
- Seniority lists shall be provided by the Employer to the Union:
- (i) in April and October of each calendar year, and
 - (ii) when Employees have been served notice pursuant to the provisions of Article 15.

(b) Contents of Seniority Lists

The seniority list shall contain the name and seniority date of each Full-time, Part-time, Casual Employee in chronological order, along with each Employee's Full-time equivalents (FTE) and job classification.

(c) Correction of Seniority Lists

The Union may question or grieve any inaccuracies with thirty (30) days of receiving the seniority list except for Employees on a previous seniority list. Thereafter the date shall be considered as being established except for those names which shall be deemed to be deleted by:

(i) application of clause 12.03;

(ii) transfer to an excluded position and/or out of scope position.

(d) Where an Employee claims previous service under clause 12.01 (b) (ii), the Union carries the responsibility for compiling the necessary proof of prior service and providing it to the Employer.

(e) Where an Employee claims previous service under clause 12.01 (b) (iii), the Employer carries the responsibility for compiling the necessary proof and providing it to the Union.

(f) Seniority Tie-Breaking

(i) Where two (2) or more Employees have the same seniority date the Union will determine individual ranking. An updated list shall be shared with the Employer at least every six (6) months.

(ii) Where a new Employee hired into the bargaining unit brings the same seniority date as other Employees already in the bargaining unit, they will be placed as the least senior of those Employees sharing the same seniority date.

12.05 In the case of an Employee entering the bargaining unit from an excluded position or out of scope position was contiguous with a previous period of employment within the bargaining unit (Full-time, Part-time, Casual), the Employee's seniority date shall be adjusted so as to give credit only for days equivalent to such previous service within the bargaining unit.

12.06 An Employee who has accrued seniority in accordance with clause 12.01 (b) shall upon termination of employment and rehire be entitled to maintain their previous seniority date provided that there has not been a break of six (6) months or more in the Employee's continuous employment. Such seniority date shall be considered in accordance with clause 12.02, but shall have no impact upon the Employee, as an external candidate, obtaining employment.

ARTICLE 13: PERSONNEL FILE

- 13.01 The Employer agrees to advise and discuss with the Employee in question any report concerning the Employee's performance or conduct while employed by the Employer prior to such being filed in the Employee's personnel file. While the Employee's signature on a report may be regarded as evidence of him/her being made aware of such a report, such is not indicative of the Employee's acceptance of it. An Employee shall have the right to respond in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days of having discussed the report with the Employer and that reply shall be placed in his/her personnel file.
- 13.02 (a) The Employer shall endeavour to provide each Employee with a written evaluation at least once in a two (2) calendar year period. Such evaluation will be done by the most immediate supervisor in an excluded management position. A meeting for the purpose of this clause will be scheduled by the Employer with a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours notice to the Employee, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and named holidays. The contents of the Employee's personnel file shall be available for examination by the Employee at the time of the evaluation.
- (b) An Employee shall receive a copy of any written evaluation and shall have the right to respond in writing to any evaluation. Such response shall be attached to and become part of the evaluation.
- 13.03 (a) By appointment made at least two (2) days in advance exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Named Holidays, an Employee may view his/her personnel file on site and in the presence of a person authorized by the Employer. An Employee, at his/her request, may be accompanied by a Union representative when viewing his/her personnel file.
- (b) An Employee may request and shall be given a copy of any or all documents contained in her or his personnel file at the time the Employee views the file, pursuant to clause 13.03 (a). The Employee may be required by the Employer to pay a reasonable fee to cover the cost of copying which fee shall be established by the Employer.
- 13.04 An Employee's evaluation shall not be released by the Employer to any person except to a Board of Arbitration, or as required by law.
- 13.05 The absence of an evaluation means that the Employee has met expectations.

ARTICLE 14: VACANCIES, PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

14.01 Job Postings

- (a) Vacant positions within the bargaining unit shall be posted for a minimum of ten (10) calendar days in advance of making an appointment.
 - (b) The job posting shall include a description of the duties, shifts involved and all relevant qualifications of the position. The job posting will state the anticipated start date of the position and the expected term of a term position. A copy of the job posting shall be forwarded to the Union within five (5) days of the job posting.
 - (c) All job postings shall have a closing time and date which shall not be a Saturday, Sunday or Named Holiday.
- 14.02 All applications for a vacancy, transfer or promotion shall be submitted in writing to the Employer.
- 14.03 All applicants for a vacancy, transfer and/or promotion shall be informed in writing of the name of the successful applicant within five (5) working days of the date of the appointment and a copy provided to the Union.
- 14.04 If circumstances require the Employer to fill a vacancy before the expiration of ten (10) calendar days, the appointment shall be made on a temporary or relief basis only.
- 14.05 All vacancies shall be filled whenever possible from within the bargaining unit.
- 14.06 In filling vacancies or making promotions and transfers, the determining factors shall be seniority, skill, training, knowledge, efficiency and other reasonable and relevant attributes.
- 14.07 All transfers and promotions shall be on a trial basis. The transferred or promoted Employee will be given a sixty (60) calendar day trial period in which to demonstrate his/her ability to perform the new position satisfactorily. Should either:
- (a) the Employer determine that the Employee is unable to fulfill the requirements of the position during the trial period, or
 - (b) the Employee requests reinstatement to her/his former position during the trial period,
- the Employer will reinstate the Employee in his/her former position or if such reinstatement is not possible, place the Employee in another suitable position at a basic hourly rate of pay equivalent to that of his/her former position.

- 14.08 In instances where a Full or Part-time Employee accepts a regular or term position which is outside of the scope of the bargaining unit, the resultant vacancy shall be posted as a term position, not exceeding six (6) months. During this six (6) month period, the former Employee may be reinstated into his/her former position.
- 14.09 At the time of hire or transfer, or change of hours in accordance with clause 14.10 – Decreasing or Increasing Regular Hours of Work, or change in employment status in accordance with Article 30 or 14, all Employees shall receive a letter of employment which shall include the following:
- (a) the Employee’s date of hire and transfer (if applicable);
 - (b) the Employee’s employment status (full-time, part-time, casual, or term);
 - (c) the job classification;
 - (d) basic hourly rate of pay and step on the Salary Appendix;
 - (e) hours required until the next increment;
 - (f) and for Full and Part-time Employees, the number of hours over the shift schedule period.
- 14.10 1. Decreasing regular hours of work for Full-time and Part-time Employees:
- (a) Requests to decrease regular hours of work, from Full-time or Part-time Employees, shall be made in writing. The Employer shall have the right to accept or reject any request for alteration of the Employee’s Full-time equivalent (FTE) based upon operational requirements including but not limited to staff skills mix, individual performance issues, etc. The Employer shall indicate approval or disapproval in writing within fourteen (14) days of the request to decrease the regular hours of work and such request shall not be unreasonably denied.
 - (b) A request to decrease regular hours of work shall indicate the requested number of shifts per shift cycle. Employees shall not be permitted to amend the length of their shift through this process.
 - (c) No hours of work from the previous position shall be eliminated due to this process. If the number of hours vacated as a result of granting a request to decrease hours received by the Employer pursuant to this Article equals or exceeds point four Full-time equivalent (.4 FTE), they shall be posted as a vacancy.
 - (d) If the number of hours vacated as a result of this Article is less than point four Full-time equivalent (.4 FTE) the additional shifts may be offered to regular Part-time Employees, in order of seniority, working in the facility, or may be posted as a vacancy.

- (e) Upon agreement of the Employer and the Union, this process may be used to achieve reductions in Full-time equivalent (FTE) due to case mix index funding fluctuations. This may occur only once per year and only where Employee requests for a decrease in regular hours will help accomplish the needed FTE reduction.
- (f) A regular Full-time or regular Part-time Employee can not decrease his/her Full-time equivalent (FTE) to less than a point four Full-time equivalent (.4 FTE) pursuant to this Article, unless otherwise agreed between the Employer and the Union.
- (g) Where the number of Employees making such requests in the fourteen (14) day period commencing the date the initial request is received by the Employer exceeds the number of requests that may be granted, the requests shall be granted in order of seniority of those Employees whose requests can be accommodated. If the Employee's request cannot be granted, the Employer shall indicate to that Employee whether an alternate choice of hours can be accommodated whereupon the Employee shall have the ability to amend his/her request.
- (h) Requests for a temporary reduction in regular hours of work shall indicate the period of time that the temporary reduction would apply. The maximum time for such temporary reduction is twelve (12) months.

2. Increasing regular hours of work for Part-time Employees:

- (a) If newly funded additional regular Full-time equivalents of less than point four (.4) become available in the facility or if the number of hours vacated by an Employee as a result of this Article is less than point four Full-time equivalent (.4 FTE) or temporary FTEs of less than twelve (12) months and less than point four Full-time equivalents (.4 FTEs) becomes available in the facility such additional or residual hours may be offered, in whole or in part, to regular Part-time Employees in order of seniority, working in the facility or may be posted for members of the bargaining unit only.
- (b) If the number of hours available or vacated equals or exceeds point four Full-time equivalent (.4 FTE), these shall be posted in accordance with Article 14.
- (c) If there are no qualified applicants from the posting(s) in 2(a) or 2(b) above, the remaining shifts shall be offered in whole or in part to regular Part-time Employees working in the facility, in order of seniority.

- (d) Any unassigned hours following the completion of 2(c) above will not remain subject to the provisions of this Article.
 - (e) A regular Part-time Employee may add to his/her regular hours of work only those hours from the vacant position(s) that can be accommodated in his/her schedule without violating the scheduling provisions of the Collective Agreement.
 - (f) A Part-time Employee may become a Full-time Employee through the operation of this Article.
 - (g) No Part-time Employee shall be permitted to increase his/her regular hours while other Employees are on layoff as long as the laid off Employees can perform the work required.
- 3. No Employee may decrease or increase his/her regular hours of work pursuant to this Article more frequently than once in a calendar year unless otherwise agreed between the Employer and the Union.
 - 4. Any redistribution of hours as a result of the operation of this Article shall not be considered a violation of the Letter of Understanding Re: Severance.
 - 5. Where any request pursuant to this Article has been approved, the Employer shall issue a letter to the Employee confirming the Employee's new regular hours of work in accordance with this Collective Agreement.
 - 6. Copies of all requests and responses to requests pursuant to this Article shall be provided to the Union forthwith.
 - 7. An Employee whose regular hours of work are altered through the operation of this Article shall not be required to serve a trial period.
 - 8. Agreement to alter an Employee's regular hours of work in accordance with clause 14.10 shall not be considered a violation of Articles 14 or 15.
 - 9. This provision is not intended to circumvent the posting and recall provisions of Articles 14 and 15 in circumstances where a position has become vacant. In such a case(s), the vacancy(s) shall be filled in accordance with Article 14 and 10 of the Collective Agreement and not by transferring an Employee who has made a request under this provision to transfer into the vacancy(s).
- 14.11 (a) When the Employer reinstated an Employee in the Employee's former position, or places the Employee in another suitable position, the vacancy in which the Employee is being placed shall not be subject to the provisions of clauses 14.01 to 14.06 inclusive.

- (b) A reinstatement or placement of an Employee in accordance with clause 14.07 shall not be construed as a violation of the scheduling provisions of Article 32.

14.12 Term Positions

Term positions shall be posted in accordance with Article 14: Vacancies, Promotions and Transfers. The Employer will post the expected start and expiry dates of the term position and confirm such dates in writing prior to the Employee's commencement in the position.

- 14.13 All terms of the Collective Agreement shall be applicable to the Employee in the term position except as set out in this Article.

- 14.14 On expiry of the term position, the Employee who was:

- (a) newly hired from outside the facility specifically for the term position will be offered casual status; or
- (b) employed by the Employer prior to accepting the term position shall be returned to his/her former position.

- 14.15 For Term positions which are special projects the operation of the provisions of this Article shall not be construed as a violation of Articles 14, 15.01(a), 7.03, 7.06, or 8.01(d).

For Term positions which are for the replacement of another Employee, the provisions of this Article shall not be construed as a violation of clause 15.01(a).

- 14.16 A Casual Employee awarded a term position will become either a Full-time or Part-time Employee as determined by the hours of work of the term position for the duration of the term position.

- 14.17 An Employee occupying a term position who reverts to casual employment status shall have accrued income protection credits frozen and unavailable for utilization. He/she shall be re-credited with his/her accrued credits at such time as he/she is awarded a Full-time, Part-time or another term position and provided that there has been no interruption in employment.

- 14.18 Term positions may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the Union and the Employer.

ARTICLE 15: LAYOFF AND RECALL

15.01 For Michener Hill:

- (a) Should the Employer find it necessary to eliminate a position or to reduce the regular hours of an Employee, it will so notify the Union in writing as far in advance as possible. The Union and the Employer will meet within fourteen (14) calendar days of such notice to discuss the matter including the reasons for the intended changes, the feasibility of a severance package for Employees, and the anticipated changes to staffing.
- (a) Should the Employer find it necessary to eliminate a position or to reduce the regular hours of an Employee due to a drop in the resident census, or as a result of a reduction in provincial or regional funding, or a change in government regulations, it will so notify the Union in writing as far in advance as possible. The Union and the Employer will meet within fourteen (14) calendar days of such notice to discuss the matter including the reasons for the intended changes, the feasibility of a severance package for Employees, and the anticipated changes to staffing.
- (b) Should the Employer decide to proceed, an Employee whose position is eliminated or whose regular hours are reduced will be given twenty-eight (28) calendar days notice in writing. A copy will be supplied to the Union.
- (c) An Employee whose position is eliminated or whose regular hours are reduced or who is displaced in accordance with this Article shall have the right to displace an Employee with less seniority in a position for which he/she has the ability to perform the work, or at his/her option, take a position which is vacant and for which he/she has the ability to perform the work.
- (d) An Employee exercising his/her right to displace another Employee or to take a vacant position pursuant to clause 15.01 (c) shall within forty-eight (48) hours, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays or Named Holidays, of receipt of the information necessary to make a decision regarding vacancies or displacement, an Employee exercising the right to displace another Employee or to take a vacant position pursuant to clause 15.01(c) shall advise the Employer, in writing, of his/her decision, including the name of the Employee he/she wishes to displace or the vacant position he/she wishes to take. Where the Employee fails to exercise such right within the specified time limit, he/she shall be deemed to have waived his/her right to displace another Employee or take a vacant position and the Employer shall:
 - (i) place his/her in any available vacant position of the Employer's choice for which he/she has the ability to perform the work; or
 - (ii) in the absence of such a vacancy effect a layoff in accordance with clause 15.02.

- (e) Notwithstanding clause 15.01 (c) and (d) an Employee may not displace an Employee, or take a vacant position, in a higher rated job classification (e.g. Staff Development Coordinator).

15.02 The following provisions shall apply in the event of a layoff:

- (a) Where possible, the Employer will give twenty-eight (28) calendar days notice of lay-off or shall make a payment at the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay for all of the Employee's scheduled hours of work for the twenty-one (21) calendar day period or portion thereof for which notice has not been given.
- (b)
 - (i) For Employees who have been given notice of lay-off, subject to the benefit plans, the Employer will continue to make payment of its share of the benefit premium cost referred to in Article 21 on behalf of the laid off Employee for the first three (3) months following the notice of layoff inclusive of the month the layoff notice is given in.
 - (ii) Employees laid off for more than three (3) months may, with the assistance of or through the Employer, make prior arrangements with the benefit plan carrier for payment of the full premium cost of any of the benefit plans referred to in Article 21. The Employee may continue to participate in the said benefit plan until he/she is laid off for greater than twelve (12) months without being recalled. The Employee must give notice of his/her decision to exercise this option no less than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the end of the time period set out in clause 15.02(b)(i) in order that such payments commence the first of the month following the period of time set out in clause 15.02(b)(i).
- (c) Employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority.
- (d) Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority provided they are qualified to do the work.
- (e) No new Employee shall be hired until all Employees on layoff have been given the opportunity of recall.
- (f) The Employer shall recall the Employee from layoff by telephone and if such is not possible, by double registered letter sent to the Employee's last known home address. Telephone notifications shall be confirmed by a double registered letter.
- (g) The Employee so notified shall return to work as soon as possible but not later than seven (7) calendar days following the date of the delivery of the letter.
- (h) An Employee who fails to respond to the notice of recall as detailed above shall be deemed to have resigned from his/her position, however, the Employer will give consideration to unusual circumstances.

- (i) Employees on layoff are responsible for informing the Employer of any change in address or telephone number which may be used to contact them for recall.
- (j) Notwithstanding clause 15.02 (g) and (h) and clause 12.02 (d) for recalls less than fourteen (14) calendar days duration, an Employee on layoff will be offered additional shifts until such time as the Employee's hours equal their pre-layoff hours of work in each bi-weekly period. An Employee on layoff shall have the right to refuse an offer of a work period of less than fourteen (14) calendar days without adversely affecting his/her recall status.

ARTICLE 16: IN CHARGE

16.01 Charge Pay

- (a) The Employer shall prepare a document specifying the roles and responsibilities of a RN or RPN assigned the responsibility of overseeing the entire facility. The roles and responsibilities document will identify the authority or process for augmenting staff.
- (b) The Employer shall designate a person responsible for overseeing the entire facility.
- (c) When an RN or RPN is assigned the responsibility of overseeing the entire facility (i.e. evening shift, night shift, and any weekend shift) he/she shall be paid an additional two dollars ($2.00) per hour.

ARTICLE 17: VACATIONS

17.01 For the purpose of this Article:

- (a) "vacation" means annual vacation with pay;
- (b) "vacation year" means the twelve (12) month period commencing on July 1st in each calendar year and concluding on June 30th in the following calendar year.

17.02 (a) All vacation earned during one (1) vacation year shall be taken during the next following vacation year at a mutually agreeable time.

- (b) Clause 17.02(a) notwithstanding, an Employee will be allowed, upon written request, to carry over two (2) weeks of earned vacation into the next vacation years. Such requests for vacation carryover shall be submitted prior to May 1st. Such weeks of earned vacation carried over may not be utilized during the months of July or August, nor during the period of December 15 to the following January. However, if the Employer and employee cannot find a time that is mutually agreeable for the use of the vacation time, the remaining vacation time that is carried over shall be paid out.

- (i) The Employer shall post the vacation schedule planner by January 1st of each year. Where an Employee submits in writing his/her vacation preference by March 15th of that year, the Employer shall indicate approval or disapproval of that vacation request and shall post the resulting vacation schedule by April 30th of the same year. Where the number of Employees indicating a preference for a specific period exceeds the number of Employees as determined by the Employer that can be allocated vacation during the period, seniority shall be the deciding factor. Vacation requests submitted within the period of March 15th to April 30th will not supercede those received prior to March 15th regardless of seniority.
- (ii) When an Employee submits a request for vacation in writing after April 30th, the Employer shall indicate approval or disapproval in writing of the vacation request within fourteen (14) days of the request.
- (c) When an Employee has requested and vacation has been approved in accordance with clause 17.02 (b) (i), and where vacation is cancelled by the Employer with less than thirty (30) days notice, the Employee shall be paid two times (2X) her or his basic hourly rate of pay for the shift(s) worked during the period of vacation cancelled by the Employer. The Employer shall also reimburse all non-refundable costs related to the cancellation of the vacation, upon the Employee providing copies of receipts.
- (d) Notwithstanding clause 17.02(a), at the written request of the Employee, the Employer shall provide the Employee with vacation pay rather than vacation time with pay for that portion of the Employee's vacation entitlement that exceeds four (4) weeks.

17.03 Employees shall not waive their vacation and draw double pay.

17.04 In the selection of vacation period, every effort will be made consistent with the necessities of the operations of the Nursing Home to allow Employees to exercise their choice in accordance with their seniority status.

17.05 An Employee may, with the approval of the Employer, split his/her vacation, provided at least one (1) portion is taken during a month other than June, July or August.

17.06 Vacation Entitlement

Full-time Employees shall be entitled to paid vacation as set out below, however, subject to clause 17.09 and clause 22.01(d).

Vacation Entitlement will be as follows:

- (a) During the first (1st) year of employment, an Employee earns a vacation of fifteen (15) working days with pay.
- (b) During each of the second (2nd) to ninth (9th) years of employment, an Employee earns a vacation of twenty (20) working days with pay.
- (c) During each of the tenth (10th) to nineteenth (19th) years of employment, an Employee earns a vacation of twenty-five (25) working days with pay.
- (d) During each of the twentieth (20th) and subsequent years of employment, an Employee earns a vacation of thirty (30) working days with pay.
- (e) Supplementary Vacation

Upon reaching an employment anniversary of twenty-five (25) years, thirty (30) years, thirty-five (35) years, forty (40) years, and forty-five (45) years of continuous service, Employees shall be credited with an additional five (5) days of vacation with pay to be taken at a time that's mutually agreeable between the Employee and the Employer, within the five (5) year period following date earned.

17.07 Vacation Pay on Termination

- (a) Employees who resign their employment shall be paid, within the ten (10) days after expiration of the next regular pay period. The amount to be paid shall be six percent (6%), eight percent (8%), ten percent (10%) or twelve percent (12%) whichever is applicable of the total gross basic hourly earnings on which vacation pay has not previously been paid.
- (b) Any provisions of this Collective Agreement notwithstanding, if employment is terminated by an Employee without giving proper notice as provided in clause 23.05, such Employee shall receive vacation pay at the rate prescribed in the Employment Standards Code. The Employer may waive this clause if termination is due to illness or to other causes acceptable to the Employer.

17.08 Where a voluntarily terminated Employee commences employment within six (6) months of date of termination of employment with another Employer signatory to a collective agreement containing this provision, such Employee shall, after one (1) year of service, receive vacation entitlement as though his/her employment had been continuous. The Employer shall provide the Employee with a written statement of his/her vacation entitlement upon termination.

17.09 An Employee who is absent from work due to illness or injury shall accrue vacation pay or entitlements in accordance with clause 17.06 for:

- (a) periods during which the Employee is in receipt of sick leave pursuant to clause 19.03;
- (b) periods during which the Employee is in receipt of Workers' Compensation benefits for the first twenty-four (24) months of such absence.

ARTICLE 18: NAMED HOLIDAYS

18.01 Full-time Employees shall be entitled to a day off with pay on or within thirty (30) days of the following Named Holidays:

New Year's Day	Labour Day
Alberta Family Day	Thanksgiving Day
Good Friday	Remembrance Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day
August Civic Holiday	Float Holiday

and any day proclaimed to be a holiday by:

- (a) the Government of the Province of Alberta, or
- (b) the Government of Canada, or
- (c) the respective municipal government, shall be recognized.

18.02 To qualify for a Named Holiday with pay, the Employee must:

- (a) work her or his scheduled shift immediately prior to and immediately following the holiday except where the Employee is absent due to illness or other reasons acceptable to the Employer;
- (b) work on the holiday when scheduled or required to do so.

18.03 (a) Except as specified in clause 18.03 (b), an Employee obliged to work on a Named Holiday shall be paid for all hours worked on the Named Holiday at one and a half times (1 1/2X) the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay plus:

- (i) an alternate day off at a mutually agreed time; or
- (ii) by mutual agreement, a day added to his/her next annual vacation; or
- (iii) by mutual agreement, the Employee may receive payment for such day at his/her basic hourly rate of pay.

- (b) An Employee obliged to work on Christmas Day or August Civic Holiday shall be paid for all hours worked on the Named Holiday at two times (2X) the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay plus:
 - (i) an alternate day off at a mutually agreed time;
 - (ii) by mutual agreement, a day added to his/her next annual vacation; or
 - (iii) by mutual agreement, the Employee may receive payment for such day at the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay.
 - (c) The Employer shall not schedule the alternate day off with pay as provided in clause 18.03 (a), (b), (i) and (ii) until such time as the Employee and the Employer have endeavored to agree on the date of the alternate day off. Failing mutual agreement within thirty (30) calendar days following the Named Holiday of the option to be applied, the Employee shall have a day off with pay scheduled adjacent to a scheduled day of rest.
 - (d) In addition to an alternate day off, an Employee who is obliged to work overtime on a Named Holiday shall be paid as follows:
 - (i) for all overtime hours worked on a Named Holiday two point five times (2.5X) their Basic Hourly Rate of Pay.
 - (ii) for all overtime hours worked on August Civic Holiday and Christmas Day three times (3X) their Basic Hourly Rate of Pay.
- 18.04 When a Named Holiday falls on a day that would otherwise be a Full-time Employee's regularly scheduled day off, the Employee shall receive an alternate day off as outlined in clause 18.03 above.
- 18.05 When a Named Holiday falls during a Full-time Employee's annual vacation, such holiday may, by mutual agreement, be added to the vacation period, or the alternate day off shall be dealt with as set out in clause 18.03.
- 18.06 (a) Unless requested by the Employee, an Employee shall be scheduled to have either Christmas Day off or New Year's Day off. When an Employee is scheduled to have Christmas Day off, and/or New Year's Day off, he/she shall not be scheduled to work the evening shift of the day prior.
- (b) (i) An Employee granted Christmas Day off in accordance with clause 18.06(a) shall be scheduled such that the Employee shall have two (2) consecutive days where he/she will not be obliged to work (i.e., December 24 and 25, or December 25-26).
 - (ii) An Employee granted New Year's Day off in accordance with clause 18.06(a) shall be scheduled such that the Employee shall have two (2) consecutive days where he/she will not be obliged to work (i.e., December 31 and January 1, or January 1-2).

- (c) Unless otherwise requested by the Employee, the Employer will endeavour that no Employee shall be scheduled to work Christmas Day for two (2) consecutive years.

ARTICLE 19: SICK LEAVE

- 19.01 (a) Sick leave is provided by the Employer for any illness, quarantine by a Medical Officer of Health or because of an accident for which compensation is not payable under the Workers' Compensation Act. Illness included by this Article includes the health related portion of maternity leave which must be validated with a medical doctor's certificate.
- (b) The Employer recognizes that alcoholism, drug addiction and mental illness are illnesses which can respond to therapy and treatment and that absence from work due to such therapy shall be considered sick leave.
- 19.02 Full-time Employees shall be allowed a credit for sick leave computed from the date of employment at the rate of one (1) day of each fourteen (14) shifts worked up to maximum sick leave credits of one hundred and seventy (170) working days. For purposes of accumulating sick leave credits, vacation days and Named Holidays shall be considered as shifts worked.
- 19.03 An Employee on sick leave shall be paid for the period of such leave at his/her basic hourly rate of pay and the number of days thus paid shall be deducted from his/her accumulated sick leave credits up to the total amount accumulated.
- 19.04 An Employee may be required to submit satisfactory proof to the Employer or its agents of any illness, non-occupational accident or quarantine. Failure to provide satisfactory proof may, at the Employer's discretion, result in non-payment of sick leave. Where the Employee is required by the Employer to submit a proof of illness and the Employee is required to pay for such proof, the Employee will be reimbursed in full by the Employer.
- 19.05 (a) No sick leave shall be granted for any illness or injury which is incurred by an Employee during his/her vacation, however, sick leave shall be granted after the expiry of the Employee's vacation and provided the illness continues beyond the vacation. Sick leave shall be granted for the period of sick time falling within a scheduled vacation period provided that the Employee becomes ill prior to the commencement of the vacation. If the Employee so wishes the number of sick days paid for within the vacation shall be considered as vacation not taken and may be taken later.

- (b) Notwithstanding clause 19.05(a), should an Employee be admitted to hospital during the course of her vacation, she shall be considered as being on sick leave for the period of hospitalization and subsequent period of recovery provided she notifies her Employer upon return from vacation and provides satisfactory proof of her hospitalization. Vacation time not taken as a result of such stay in hospital shall be rescheduled to a mutually agreeable time.
- 19.06 If an Employee exhausts his/her sick leave credits during the course of an illness and the illness continues he/she shall be considered as remaining on sick leave without pay for the duration of the illness or up to eighteen (18) months whichever is lesser. Upon the Employee's readiness to return to work following sick leave he/she shall notify the Employer of his/her availability to work. The Employer shall reinstate his/her in the same job classification which he/she held immediately prior to the absence, subject to the layoff and recall provisions of this Collective Agreement at the earliest opportunity but in no case longer than four (4) weeks following notification of availability.
- 19.07 An Employee absenting herself by reason of illness or injury shall give the Employer as much notice as possible to enable a replacement to be found or the duties to be redistributed.
- 19.08 Sick leave credits shall not accumulate during periods of illness, injury, quarantine and unpaid leaves of absence.
- 19.09 A Full-time or Part-time Employee who reverts to casual employment status shall have accrued income protection credits frozen and unavailable for utilization. He/she shall be re-credited with his/her accrued credits at such time as he/she is awarded a Full-time, Part-time or term position provided that there has been no interruption in employment.
- 19.10 Upon termination of employment, all sick leave credits shall be cancelled and no payment shall be due therefore.
- 19.11 An Employee who has been receiving sick leave for a period in excess of six (6) months shall provide the Employer with two (2) weeks notice of readiness to return to work.
- 19.12 Where a new Employee commences employment within six (6) months of the date of termination of employment with another UNA-certified Extendicare facility, that Employee shall retain his/her unused sick leave credits as though his/her employment had been continuous. The Employer shall provide the Employee with a written statement of the Employee's unused sick leave upon termination.
- 19.13 If an Employee requires time off for the purpose of attending a dental, physiotherapy, optical or medical appointment, provided they have been given prior authorization by the Employer, such absence shall be neither charged against their accumulated sick leave, nor shall the Employee suffer any loss of income provided such absence does not exceed two (2) hours during one work day. If the absence is longer than two (2) hours, the whole period of absence shall be charged against their accumulated sick leave. Employees may be required to submit satisfactory proof of appointments.

ARTICLE 20: WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- 20.01 All Employees shall be covered by Workers' Compensation.
- 20.02 It is the responsibility of Employees to immediately report to their supervisor any injuries sustained while on duty. As directed by the Employer, all such accidents and injuries shall be recorded in the "First Aid Record Binder" or the Employer database.
- 20.03 An Employee unable to report for duty as a result of an injury sustained while on duty is responsible for advising the Employer. Failure to do so will result in the Employee being considered absent without permission.
- 20.04 An Employee who is incapacitated and unable to work, as a result of an accident sustained while on duty in the service of the Employer within the meaning of the Workers' Compensation Act, shall continue to receive full net salary provided he/she assigns over to the Employer, on proper forms, the monies due from the Workers' Compensation Board for time lost due to accident. A deduction of one-tenth (1/10) day shall be charged against sick leave credits for each day an Employee is off work. Employees shall only receive full net salary to the extent that one-tenth (1/10) day can be deducted from sick leave credits.
- 20.05 An Employee who has been receiving Workers' Compensation for a period in excess of six (6) months shall provide the Employer with two (2) weeks notice of readiness to return to work.

ARTICLE 21: HEALTH BENEFITS

- 21.01 The Employer shall provide the following benefits for which participation is voluntary:
- (a) Alberta Blue Cross Supplementary Benefits Plan or equivalent inclusive of:
 - (i) providing a minimum of fifty dollars ($50.00) per visit for physiotherapist and massage therapist subject to the Plan maximum; and
 - (ii) eighty percent (80%) direct payment for all medications prescribed by a qualified medical practitioner.
 - (b) Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan;
 - (c) Group Life Insurance: one times (1X) basic annual earnings rounded to next highest one thousand dollars ($1,000);

- (d) Accidental Death and Dismemberment (basic): one times (1X) basic annual earnings rounded to next highest one thousand dollars ($1,000);
- (e) Alberta Blue Cross Dental Plan or equivalent, including services which include basic, major and orthodontic services; which plan provides one hundred percent/fifty percent/fifty percent (100%/50%/50%) reimbursement of eligible dental expenses;

 A maximum annual reimbursement of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per insured person per benefit year shall apply to basic services. A maximum annual reimbursement of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per insured person per benefit year shall apply to Extensive Services. Orthodontic Services shall be subject to a lifetime maximum reimbursement of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per insured person.
- (f) A vision care plan providing six hundred dollars ($600.00) reimbursement per family member every two (2) years.

21.02 Premium cost sharing shall be as follows for single or family coverage benefit premiums as applicable.

% of premium cost paid by the Company		# of shifts worked bi-weekly
100%	Employee regularly scheduled more than	9 shifts
90%	Employee regularly scheduled more than	8 shifts
80%	Employee regularly scheduled more than	7 shifts
70%	Employee regularly scheduled more than	6 shifts
60%	Employee regularly scheduled more than	5 shifts
50%	Employee regularly scheduled more than	4 shifts
40%	Employee regularly scheduled	4 shifts

21.03 The Employer shall distribute to all Employees brochures and other relevant information concerning the above plans, and upon hiring to all Employees and the Union when there are changes to the plans. The Employer shall advise all new Employees of the available benefit plans.

21.04 The Employer shall provide one (1) copy of each of the plans to the Provincial Office of the United Nurses of Alberta.

21.05 Such coverage shall be provided to all regular and term Employees. Where the benefits specified above are provided through insurance obtained by the Employer, the administration of such plans shall be subject to and governed by the terms and conditions of the policies or contracts entered into with the underwriters of the plans.

ARTICLE 22: LEAVES OF ABSENCE

22.01 General Policies Governing Leaves of Absence

- (a) All applications for leave of absence shall be made in writing to the Employer as early as possible in order that staff substitutions may be arranged. Applications shall indicate the date of departure on leave of absence and the date of return.
- (b) An Employee who has been granted leave of absence of any kind and who overstays his/her leave without permission of the Employer shall be subject to the discipline process in Article 23.05.
- (c) Except as provided in Articles 22.03 and 22.04 where an Employee is granted a leave of absence of more than a month's duration, and the Employee is covered by any or all of the plans specified in Article 21: Employee Benefits, and provided the Employee wishes to continue these benefits, that Employee shall, subject to the Insurer's requirements, make prior arrangement for the prepayment of the full premiums for the applicable plans.
- (d) In the case of a leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) calendar days, an Employee shall cease to accrue sick leave and earned vacation. An exception will be an unpaid leave of absence for Union business, but does not apply to nurses on temporary or long term work assignments with the Union or other labour organizations. The Employee's increment date shall also be adjusted by the same amount of time as the leave of absence exceeds thirty (30) calendar days and the new increment date shall prevail thereafter.
- (e) Employees shall not be entitled to Named Holidays with pay which may fall during an unpaid leave of absence.
- (f) During an Employee's leave of absence, the Employee may work as a Casual Employee with the Employer without adversely affecting the Employee's reinstatement to the position from which the Employee is on leave.
- (g) Any request for a leave of absence shall be responded to within a reasonable amount of time, and in any event, within fourteen (14) days.
- (h) Permission for a leave of absence will not be unfairly withheld and where permission is denied, reasons shall be given.

22.02 Union Leave

The Employer shall not unreasonably withhold approval for leave of absence for Employees elected or appointed to represent the Union at conventions, workshops, institutes, seminars, negotiations or for Union or Local business. Such requests for leave of absence without pay may be submitted in writing to the Employer. For the purposes of leaves of absences covered by clause 22.02, Employees shall continue to accrue sick leave, earned vacation and time towards increments.

22.03 Maternity Leave

- (a) The Employer shall grant a leave of absence without pay of up to twelve (12) months, upon written request. An Employee shall endeavour to provide written request for such leave at least two (2) weeks prior to the proposed starting date of the leave. The written request for such leave shall stipulate the intended date of return to work. Unless otherwise provided by law, maternity leave shall be provided for reasons of pregnancy.
- (b) An Employee on Maternity Leave shall give the Employer four (4) weeks written notice as to whether or not he/she intends to return to work. Upon his/her return, he/she shall be reinstated in the same position held by him/her immediately prior to taking leave and at the same step in the pay scale, or if such is not possible, the Employer shall provide him/her with alternate work of a comparable nature at not less than the same rate in the pay scale and other benefits that accrued to him/her up to the date he/she commenced leave.
- (c) For the portion of Maternity Leave during which an Employee has a valid health-related reason for being absent from work and who is in receipt of accumulated sick leave credits or on unpaid sick leave as the case may be, benefit plan premium payments shall be administered in the same fashion as an Employee absent due to illness.
- (d) Vacation accrual and time counted towards achieving another increment for the portion of Maternity Leave during which the Employee has a valid health-related reason for being absent from work and who is in receipt of accumulated sick leave credits or unpaid sick leave as the case may be, shall be administered in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Collective Agreement.
- (e) The benefit premium cost sharing will continue for twelve (12) full weeks following the conclusion of the health-related period of Maternity Leave, provided that the Employee makes arrangements to prepay their share of the premium prior to the conclusion of the health-related portion of Maternity Leave.
- (f) An Employee whose pregnancy ends other than as a result of a live birth within 16 weeks of the estimated due date is entitled to maternity leave. If maternity leave has not already commenced in accordance with Article 22.03(a), such maternity leave shall commence on the date that the pregnancy ends. Such maternity leave shall end 16 weeks after the commencement of the leave.

22.04 Adoption/Paternity Leave

- (a) An Employee shall, upon his/her written request, be granted adoption leave for the purpose of adopting a child or paternity leave for parenting duties following the birth of a child. Such leave shall be without pay, benefits and accrual of benefit credits. Such leave will not exceed twelve (12) months following the date of adoption or birth of a child.
- (b) An Employee on adoption or paternity leave shall give the Employer four (4) weeks written notice as to whether or not he/she intends to return to work. Upon his/her return to work, he/she shall be reinstated in the same position held by him/her immediately prior to taking leave and at the same step in the pay scale, if such is not possible, provide him/her with alternate work of a comparable nature at not less than the same rate in the pay scale and other benefits that accrued to him/her up to the date he/she commenced leave.
- (c) The Employee may commence adoption leave upon one (1) days notice provided that application for such leave is made when the adoption has been approved and the Employer is kept informed of the progress of the adoption meetings.
- (d) The Employee may commence paternity leave upon one (1) days notice provided that the initial application for such leave is made twelve (12) weeks prior to the expected date of delivery.
- (e) The benefit premium cost sharing will continue for twelve (12) full weeks of adoption/paternity leave provided that the Employee makes arrangements to prepay their share of the premium prior to the commencement of the adoption/paternity leave.

22.05 Bereavement Leave

- (a) For the first five (5) calendar days of such leave of absence the Employee shall suffer no loss of regular earnings. Bereavement leave may be extended by up to two (2) additional calendar days as may be necessitated by reason of travel to the funeral.
- (b) Immediate family shall include, children, parents, grandparents, spouse, (spouse to include common-law and/or same sex partner), grandchildren, guardian, fiancée, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, sisters, brothers, and mother-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law of the Employee or of the Employee's spouse and step relatives.
- (c) In the event of another relative or close friend, the Employer may grant an Employee one (1) scheduled day off with pay to attend the funeral.

22.06 Educational Leave

- (a) For the purpose of determining salary increments, an Employee who is granted leave of absence for educational purposes shall be deemed to remain in the continuous service of the Employer for the first twenty-four (24) full calendar months of such period of leave.
- (b) If requested by the Employer, an Employee shall be allowed leave with pay to attend nursing conferences, seminars and workshops.
- (c) Employees who are requested by the Employer to attend conferences, seminars and workshops shall be reimbursed for transportation, subsistence and registration fees.

22.07 Caregiver Leaves

- (a) Compassionate/Terminal Care Leave
 - (i) An Employee shall be entitled to leave of absence without pay but with benefits at the normal cost sharing, for a period of 27 weeks to care for a qualified relative with a serious medical condition with a significant risk of death within 26 weeks from the commencement of the leave.
 - (ii) “Qualified relative” for compassionate/terminal care leave means a person in a relationship to the Employee as defined in the Alberta Employment Standards Code and regulations.
 - (iii) At the request of the Employee, compassionate/terminal care leave may be taken in one (1) week increments.
 - (iv) Notwithstanding Article 22.01(a), an Employee shall apply for compassionate/terminal care leave at least two (2) weeks (or as soon as reasonably possible) in advance of the commencement of the leave and shall advise the Employer if they want to take the leave in weekly increments.
- (b) Critical Illness Leave
 - (i) An Employee who has completed at least 90 days of employment, and is a family member of a critically ill child or a critically ill qualified adult relative, is entitled to a leave of absence without pay but with benefits at the normal cost sharing:
 - for a period of up to 36 weeks to care for their critically ill child;

- for a period of up to 16 weeks to care for a critically ill qualified adult relative.
- ii) “Critically ill child” means a child, step-child, foster child or child who is under legal guardianship, and who is under 18 years of age for whom the Employee would be eligible for parents of critically ill child leave under the Alberta Employment Standards Code and regulations.
- (iii) “Critically ill qualified adult relative” means a person in a relationship to the Employee for whom the Employee would be eligible for critical illness leave under the Alberta Employment Standards Code and regulations.
- (iv) At the request of the Employee, critical illness leave may be taken in one (1) week increments.
- (v) Notwithstanding Article 22.01(a), an Employee shall apply for critical illness leave at least two (2) weeks in advance of the commencement of the leave (or as soon as reasonably possible) and shall advise the Employer if they want to take the leave in weekly increments.
- (vi) An Employee on leave of absence under Article 22.03 or 22.04 may request extension of such leave of absence, if the newborn is hospitalized and the Employee qualifies for critical illness of a child leave. Such extension shall equal the duration in which the Employee is on critical illness of a child leave.
- (c) Employees may be required to submit to the Employer satisfactory proof demonstrating the need for compassionate/terminal care leave or critical illness leave.

Court Appearance

- (a) In the event an Employee is required to appear before a court of law for jury selection, as a member of a jury, as a witness in a criminal matter or as a witness in any matter arising out of the Employee’s employment with the Employer, the Employer shall:
 - (i) suffer no loss of regular earnings for the scheduled Shift(s) so missed;
 - (ii) be paid an amount equal to the Employee’s average daily earnings at the Basic Rate of Pay to a maximum of the Employee’s regularly scheduled daily hours for each day in attendance in court on a scheduled day of rest, and may be granted an unpaid alternate day of rest as scheduled by the Employer. Such rescheduling of the day of rest shall not be construed to be a violation of the scheduling provisions of Article 7: Hours of Work and Scheduling Provisions.

- (b) In the event an Employee is scheduled to work on the evening or night Shift(s) on the day(s) or the night Shift commencing on the day(s) on which the Employee is called as a juror or witness in matters arising out of the Employee's employment with the Employer, the Employee shall be granted a leave of absence for those scheduled Shift(s).
- (c) Where an Employee is required by law to appear before a court of law for reasons other than those stated in (a) above, the Employee shall be granted a leave of absence without pay.

22.09 General Leave

- (a) Leave of absence without pay may be granted to an Employee at the discretion of the Employer and the Employee shall not work for gain during the period of leave of absence except with the express consent of the Employer.
- (b) Upon written notice at least four (4) weeks in advance a Full-time Employee may take a one day unpaid leave of absence at a mutually agreed date not more than once in every four (4) week period. Such day may not be taken on a Saturday, Sunday or Named Holiday. Failing mutual agreement, the Employer will schedule the day, or the Employee may withdraw his/her request. No leaves under this clause may be banked for requested use in a future four (4) week period.

22.10 Personal Leave

- (a) Each Employee shall be entitled to three (3) personal leave days each year, from April 1st through March 31st. Employees shall request such days as far in advance as possible. These days are for the purpose of attending to personal matters and family responsibilities, including attending appointments with family members. While the use of personal leave is not restricted from being combined with vacation or long weekends where applicable and appropriate, personal leave days are not intended for the purposes of extending time off from work. Requests for personal leave shall not be unreasonably denied.
- (b) If Employment commences on or after August 1st of the year, personal leave days will be prorated for the remainder of the year as follows:
 - (i) August 1st – November 30th: two (2) personal leave days
 - (ii) December 1st – March 31st: one (1) personal leave day.

22.11 Military Leave

An Employee who is required by military authorities to attend training or perform military service shall be granted leave without pay.

22.12 Leave for Public Affairs

- (a) The Employer recognizes the right of a regular Employee to participate in public affairs. Therefore, upon written request, the Employer shall allow leave of absence without pay so that a regular Employee may be a candidate in federal, provincial or municipal election.
- (b) Regular Employees who are elected to public office shall be allowed leave of absence without pay for a period of time not to exceed four (4) years.

22.13 Death or Disappearance of a Child Leave

- (a) An Employee who is the parent of a child who has disappeared and it is probable, considering the circumstances, that the child disappeared as a result of a crime, shall be entitled to a leave of absence without pay or benefits for a period of up to 52 weeks.
- (b) An Employee who is the parent of a child who has died and it is probable, considering the circumstances, that the child died as a result of a crime, shall be entitled to a leave of absence without pay or benefits for a period of up to 104 weeks.
- (c) An Employee is not entitled to death or disappearance of a child leave if the Employee is charged with the crime that resulted in the death or disappearance of the child.
- (d) The period during which the Employee may take death or disappearance of a child leave:
 - (i) begins on the day on which the death or disappearance occurs, and
 - (ii) ends on the earliest of:
 - the length of the leave specified in article 22.13(a) or (b), or
 - in the case of a child who disappears and is subsequently found alive, 14 days after the day on which the child is found, but no later than the end of the 52 week period, or

- on the day on which the circumstances are such that it is no longer probable that the death or disappearance was the result of a crime.

(iii) An employee who wishes to take death or disappearance of a child leave shall provide the Employer with written notice as soon as is reasonable in the circumstances and, if possible, the notice shall include the estimated date of the Employee's planned return to work. The Employee shall inform the Employer as soon as possible of any change in the estimated return to work date.

(iv) The Employee must provide the Employer with reasonable verification of the Employee's entitlement to the leave as soon as is reasonable in the circumstances.

22.14 Domestic Violence Leave

- (a) An Employee who has completed 90 days of employment and who has been subjected to domestic violence may require time off from work to address the situation and shall be entitled to leave of absence without pay for a period of up to ten (10) days in a calendar year.
- (b) An Employee may access applicable leaves of absence or banks such as sick leave, personal leave, court appearance leave, vacation, named holidays, time off in lieu of overtime, and general leave without pay.
- (c) Personal information concerning domestic violence will be kept confidential by the Employer.
- (d) When an Employee reports that they are experiencing domestic violence, the Employer will complete a hazard assessment and, where appropriate, may facilitate alternate work arrangements.
- (e) Employees may be required to submit satisfactory proof to the Employer demonstrating the need for domestic violence leave. Proof may be provided in the form of a copy of a court order, or documentation from a doctor, a family violence support service, a police officer, or lawyer.

ARTICLE 23: DISCIPLINE AND TERMINATION

- 23.01 (a) Written discipline shall be given to an Employee and a copy to the Union for unsatisfactory conduct or job performance. This written discipline shall be given within twelve (12) days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Named Holidays, of the date the Employer first became aware of the occurrence. Should written discipline be processed through the grievance procedure and found to be unjustified, the written discipline shall be removed from the Employee's personnel file. Any written discipline shall be removed from an Employee's personnel file after a period of eighteen (18) months in which he/she has not received any further written discipline.

- (b) Once a disciplinary record is eligible for removal per Article 23.01(a), the Employer shall not rely on, nor refer to such discipline in responding to new misconduct or performance issues.

23.02 The procedure stated in clause 23.01 does not prevent immediate suspension or dismissal for just cause.

23.03 An Employee absent for two (2) or more shifts without notifying the Employer shall be considered to have vacated his/her position unless a valid reason is provided for lack of notification.

23.04 There shall be no written discipline, suspension or termination of employment except for just cause.

23.05 An Employee who resigns his/her employment will endeavour to give fourteen (14) calendar days notice, exclusive of any vacation due, to the Employer.

23.06 (a) The Employer shall advise the Employee of their right to Union representation prior to the imposition of discipline. The Employer shall advise the Employee and the Local of the Union prior to the commencement of the meeting as to the nature of the discussion. If requested, the Union representative shall have time to meet with the Employee prior to the meeting with the Employer.

(b) A Union representative shall be present when the Employer is imposing discipline.

(c) Discipline shall only be imposed at a meeting held for such a purpose.

23.07 In the event that an Employee is reported to his/her licensing body by the Employer, the Employee shall be so advised, and unless otherwise requested a written copy shall be forwarded to the Local.

ARTICLE 24: NO STRIKE OR LOCKOUT

24.01 There shall be no strike, lockout or slowdown for the duration of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 25: SALARIES

25.01 Basic hourly rates of pay and increments as set out in the Salary Appendix shall be applicable to all Employees covered by this Collective Agreement effective on the dates specified therein.

- 25.02 Where the Employer establishes a new job classification within the scope of this Collective Agreement or where a position is placed within the bargaining unit by a decision of the Labour Relations Board, all compensation matters shall be subject to negotiation between the parties including the rates of pay, overtime, vacations, Named Holidays, premiums, pension plan/group RRSPs, and all letters of understanding. Where mutual agreement is not obtained concerning any of the compensation matters, the matter(s) will be referred to Arbitration as provided in this Collective Agreement within sixty (60) days of the date the new classification was created or placed into the bargaining unit. An Arbitration Board in such a case shall have the power to determine compensation for the job classification or position in question. In the case where the Employer establishes a new job classification within the scope of the Collective Agreement, the compensation items for the new job classification may be effective no earlier than the date the Employer established the new job classification. In the case where a position or job classification is placed within the scope of the bargaining unit by a decision of the Labour Relations Board the compensation item may be effective no earlier than the date or release of the decision by the Labour Relations Board to place the position or job classification in the bargaining unit.
- 25.03 (a) A salary increment shall be granted to an Employee following a period of two thousand and fifteen (2015) paid hours, exclusive of overtime, and for each successive period of two thousand and fifteen (2015) paid hours thereafter, to the maximum level provided in the Salary Appendix.
- (b) For the purposes of calculation of the salary increment, paid hours shall include sick time, vacation time, paid leaves of absence and any other hours paid by the Employer but not necessarily worked by the Employee. Paid hours shall include unpaid leave of absence for Union business, but does not apply to nurses on temporary or long term work assignments with the Union or other labour organizations.
- 25.04 Employee's pay will be deposited into the Employee's account at a financial institution of the Employee's choice.
- 25.05 Employees shall receive notification of vacation credits, sick leave credits, overtime accumulation and days in lieu of Named Holidays, at least quarterly and upon request.

ARTICLE 26: EDUCATION ALLOWANCES

- 26.01 For the purpose of establishing an Employee's basic hourly rate of pay, the Employer will recognize a Nursing Baccalaureate or Masters Degree program recognized:
- (a) by the Nursing Education Program Advisory Board (NEPAB); or
- (b) by CARNA as being a training program substantially equivalent to a NEPAB-approved Baccalaureate/Masters Degree program or the International Qualification Assessment Service.

Course/Certificate	Hourly
Gerontology	$0.70
Baccalaureate Degree	$1.25
Master's Degree	$1.50
Doctorate	$1.75

- 26.02 Education allowances are not cumulative and an Employee shall be paid only for the highest qualification attained.
- 26.03 Allowances for education shall be paid from the date the Employee provides proof of qualifications to the Employer retroactive to the date the Employee completed the requirements for the qualification or from the date of hire, whichever is later.

ARTICLE 27: RECOGNITION OF PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- 27.01 When an Employee has experience satisfactory to the Employer, the Employee's starting salary shall be adjusted as follows:
- (a) Experience prior to a five (5) year lapse will not be recognized.
 - (b) All experience satisfactory to the Employer shall be recognized on a one-for-one basis, up to the top increment in the salary scale.
 - (c) If a Registered Nurse or Registered Psychiatric Nurse has completed a nursing refresher course within the past twelve (12) months; the Employer will recognize experience that is more than five (5) years old.
 - (d) Should the Employee fail to provide evidence of previous experience in a timely fashion, he/she will not be entitled to more than three (3) months retroactivity.
- 27.02 Additional time worked, measured in paid hourly units and not credited for the purposes of initial placement on the salary scale shall be applied towards the calculation of the next increment.
- 27.03 Part-time and Casual Employees shall be entitled to have their starting salary adjusted by the following formula:
- (a) the salary of an Employee with a minimum of two thousand and fifteen (2015) paid hours shall be advanced one (1) increment on the salary scale.
 - (b) the salary of an Employee for each additional period of two thousand and fifteen (2015) paid hours shall be advanced by one (1) additional increment.
 - (c) clause 27.02 shall apply to Part-time and Casual Employees.
- 27.04 Paid hours shall be defined in accordance with clause 25.03 (b).

ARTICLE 28: PREMIUMS

28.01 Replacement Pay

When an Employee is assigned to replace another person in an out of scope position, for one (1) full shift or longer, he/she shall be paid an additional two dollars ($2.00) per hour.

28.02 Where there is not an out of scope management person reasonably available, an Employee may be assigned responsibility for the administrative operations of the facility. The Employee assigned responsibility under this clause shall be paid three dollars ($3.00) per hour in lieu of the premium outlined in clause 28.01.

28.03 No nurse shall be paid the premiums set out under clauses 16.01, 28.01 and 28.02 concurrently.

28.04 Weekend Premium

When an Employee works any hours within the sixty-four (64) hour period over Saturday and Sunday, designated by the facility as the weekend, he/she has to be paid an additional three dollars and twenty-five cents ($3.25) per hour for all hours worked within the designated period.

28.05 Shift Premium

- (a) A shift premium of two dollars and seventy-five cents ($2.75) per hour shall be paid to Employees working a shift where the majority of the hours of such shifts falls within the period of 1500 hours and 2300 hours.
- (b) Notwithstanding (a) above, for Employees working a shift that concludes between 1500 and 1700, no shift premium will be paid.
- (c) A shift premium of five dollars ($5.00) per hour shall be paid to Employees working a shift where the majority of the hours of such shifts falls within the period of 2300 hours and 0700 hours.
- (d) None of the above shall prevent the Employer from changing shift times.

28.06 Preceptor/Orientation Pay

- (a) The Employer shall establish a roster on which Employees may indicate their interest in performing preceptor duties. In assigning preceptor duties, the Employer shall first consider the Employees on the roster.
- (b) A Registered Nurse or Registered Psychiatric Nurse assigned by the Employer as a preceptor shall receive an additional sixty-five cents (65¢) per hour.

- (c) "Preceptor" shall mean Registered Nurse or Registered Psychiatric Nurse who is assigned to supervise, educate or evaluate Registered Nursing students or Registered Psychiatric Nursing students as the case may be.

28.07 No Employee shall receive payment under clause 28.05 (a) and 28.05 (c) concurrently.

ARTICLE 29: REGISTERED RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN (RRSP)

- 29.01 (a) Participation in a group RRSP as provided in the Letter of Understanding shall be at the discretion of the Employee. Further an Employee may opt in or out of the group RRSP annually on July 1.
- (b) For each Employee participating in the group RRSP, the Employer agrees to contribute one dollar and seventy cents ($1.70) per hour worked by the Employee or seven percent (7%) of the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay per hour worked, whichever is higher. Participating Employees agree to contribute a minimum of one dollar and seventy cents ($1.70) per hour worked or six percent (6.0%) of the Employees basic hourly rate of pay per hour worked, whichever is higher.

ARTICLE 30: PART TIME AND CASUAL EMPLOYEES

- 30.01 Except as specifically provided by this Article, the provisions of this Collective Agreement shall apply to Part-time and Casual Employees except that Articles 15, 12.02 (a) and (b), 7.01, 7.03, 7.05, 7.08, 7.09 (b), 9.01, 17, 18, 19, (except 19.10), 22, 21, and 35.03 shall have no application to Casual Employees.
- 30.02 (a) Part-time Employees shall be entitled to receive vacation time provisions (with pay) on the same basis as Full-time Employees subject to (b) below.
- (b) Amend clause 17.06 to read.
 - 17.06 (a) The following hours will be recognized for the purposes of determining vacation pay or entitlement:
 - (i) hours paid at the basic hourly rate of pay, inclusive of periods of sick leave with pay;
 - (ii) hours worked and paid in accordance with clause 15.01(d); and,
 - (iii) hours worked on a Named Holiday to a maximum of seven point seven five (7.75) hours;

- (iv) unpaid leave of absence for Employees elected or appointed to represent the Union at conventions, workshops, institutes, seminars, negotiation or for Union or Local business, but does not apply to nurses on temporary or long term work assignments with the Union or other labour organizations.

During each year of continuous service in the employ of the Employer, an Employee shall commence earning entitlement to a vacation with pay to be taken in the next following vacation year and the rate at which such entitlement is earned shall be governed by the total length of service in accordance with the following.

Part-time Employees shall earn vacation with pay calculated in hours in accordance with the following formula.

Hours specified in clause 30.02(b)	X	The applicable % outlined below	=	Number of hours of paid vacation to be taken in the next following vacation year
---------------------------------------	---	---------------------------------------	---	--

- (i) six percent (6%) during the first (1st) employment year;
- (ii) eight percent (8%) during the second (2nd) to ninth (9th) employment years;
- (iii) ten percent (10%) during the tenth (10th) to nineteenth (19th) employment years; and
- (iv) twelve percent (12%) during the twentieth (20th) employment years.
- (v) Upon reaching an employment anniversary of twenty-five (25), thirty (30), thirty-five (35), forty (40), or forty-five (45) years, Part-time Employees shall be credited with an additional two percent (2%) vacation pay to be taken at a time that's mutually agreeable between the Employee and the Employer, within the five (5) year period following the date earned.

30.03 Casual Employees shall be paid on each pay, in addition to their basic hourly rate of pay, a sum equal to:

- (a) six percent (6%) of their regular earnings during the first (1st) employment year;
- (b) eight percent (8%) of their regular earnings during each of the second (2nd) to ninth (9th) employment years;

- (c) ten percent (10%) of their regular earnings during each of the tenth (10th) to nineteenth (19th) employment years; and
 - (d) twelve percent (12%) of their regular earnings during each of the twentieth (20th) to twenty-fourth (24th) employment years;
 - (e) twelve point-four percent (12.4%) of their regular earnings during the twenty-fifth (25th) and subsequent employment years.
- 30.04 In lieu of Named Holidays, Part-time and Casual Employees will be paid five percent (5%) of Employer paid hours in each bi-weekly period.
- 30.05 For Part-time Employees, at least two (2) days per week shall be designated as scheduled days of rest.
- 30.06 When a Part-time Employee volunteers or agrees when requested to work an additional shift which is not designated as his/her scheduled day of rest, he/she shall be paid at his/her basic hourly rate for such hours and, if applicable, at the overtime rate of two times (2X) for any hours worked in excess of seven-point-seven-five (7.75) hours.
- 30.07 Clause 30.05 notwithstanding, when the Employer requires a Part-time Employee to work without his/her having volunteered or agreed to do so or on his/her scheduled day of rest, he/she shall be paid at the rate of two times (2X) his/her basic hourly rate of pay for all hours worked.
- 30.08 Part-time and Casual Employees shall be entitled to the basic hourly rates of pay and increments as specified in clauses 25.01 and 25.03.
- 30.09 Subject to the efficient operations of the facility, the Employer shall endeavor to equitably distribute shifts available to Casual Employees.
- 30.10 Part-time Employees shall receive one (1) day of sick leave credit for each one hundred and eight point five (108.5) hours of work. Part-time Employees may accumulate sick leave credits to the maximum allowed Full-time Employees.

ARTICLE 31: JOB PROFILES

- 31.01 For each nursing position in the bargaining unit, the Employer shall have a job profile. Copies of such profiles shall be on hand and shall be available to each Employee upon request. Copies of all such documents shall be provided to the Union upon request, and whenever changes are made.

ARTICLE 32: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

32.01 Communication

- (a) Any notice or advice which the Employer or members of its administrative staff are required to give to the Union in respect of any matter shall be sufficient if delivered to the President or Secretary of the Local.
- (b) Any notice or advice which the Union is required to give to the Employer in respect of any matter referred to in this Article and Article 8 shall be sufficient if delivered to the Director of Care or the Administrator.
- (c) The hearing of grievances at any stage of the grievance procedure may be held during the normal working day with no loss of basic pay for a participating Employee providing the Employee does not leave the Employer's premises.

32.02 Time Periods

- (a) For purposes of this Article, periods of time referred to in days shall be deemed to mean such periods of time calculated on consecutive calendar days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Named Holidays which are specified in Article 18, Named Holidays.
- (b) Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement in writing.

32.03 Steps of Grievance Procedure Involving Disputes Between the Employer and Employee

(a) Step 1

Subject to provisions of clause 11.02, if a dispute arises between the Employer and an Employee regarding the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement, the Employee shall first seek to settle the dispute through discussion with his/her immediate supervisor. During such discussion, another Employee or Union representative of the Employee's choice may be present. If the dispute is not resolved satisfactorily, it may then become a grievance and be advanced to Step 2.

(b) Step 2

The grievance shall be submitted in writing to the Director of Care (D.O.C.) within ten (10) days of the occurrence of the act causing the grievance. The party initiating the grievance shall specify in its grievance document the details of the dispute including the clause(s) and/or article(s) affected and the desired resolution. The decision of the Director of Care shall be communicated to the Local in writing within seven (7) days of receipt of the grievance. If the grievance is not resolved satisfactorily in Step 2, it may be advanced to Step 3.

(c) Step 3

The grievance, within seven (7) days of the decision of the Director of Care under Step 2 shall be submitted in writing to the Administrator. The party initiating the grievance shall specify in its grievance document the details of the dispute including the clause(s) and/or article(s) affected and the desired resolution. The decision of the Administrator shall be communicated, in writing, to the Local within seven (7) days of the submission.

(d) Step 4

If the decision of the Administrator is not acceptable to the Union, it may submit the grievance to arbitration as hereinafter provided within seven (7) days of receipt of the decision from the Administrator.

(e) If a meeting is held at Step 1, Step 2 or Step 3, an Employee shall have the right to be accompanied by a representative of the Union. Where a grievance meeting is held at Step 2 or Step 3, the timeframe for the Employer's response as set out at that step shall commence from the date of the grievance meeting.

32.04 (a) If a dispute directly affects two (2) or more Employees, it may be identified as a group grievance and be initiated at Step 2 and processed there from in the same manner as an individual grievance. A group grievance shall list all Employees affected by the grievance and the results of such grievance shall apply, proportionately if applicable, to all Employees listed on the original grievance.

(b) A "Policy Grievance" is a dispute between the parties which, due to its nature, is not properly the subject of an individual or group grievance. Such grievance shall be initiated at Step 2, in writing, to the Director of Care or equivalent or Local Union President, by a representative of the aggrieved party within ten (10) days of the date the aggrieved party first became aware of or reasonably should have become aware of the event leading to the grievance.

32.05 Default

(a) Should the Employee(s) or the Union fail to comply with any time limit in the grievance procedure, the grievance will be considered conceded and shall be abandoned unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limit.

(b) Should the Employer fail to comply with any time limit in the grievance procedure, the grievance shall automatically move to the next step on the day following the expiry of the particular time limit unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limit.

- (c) Prior to the grievance being advanced to arbitration in accordance with Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure due to time limits being missed, there shall be at least one (1) meeting held to try and resolve the issues in dispute. The party wishing to advance the grievance to arbitration shall do so in writing within forty-five (45) days of the date of the filing of the grievance at Step 2, unless the parties have mutually agreed to extend the time frames.

- 32.06 Except in a case of suspension or dismissal, during any and all proceedings mentioned in this Article, the Employee shall continue to perform faithfully his/her duties.

- 32.07 Optional Mediation
 - (a) Following attempts to resolve the dispute, the parties may agree to mediation. The mediator shall be mutually agreed upon by the Union and the Employer.
 - (i) The mediator shall, within 10 calendar days, meet with the parties, investigate the dispute and define the issues in dispute.
 - (ii) During the proceedings, the parties shall fully disclose all materials and information relevant to the issue(s) in dispute.
 - (iii) The purpose of the mediator's involvement in the grievance process is to assist the parties in reaching a resolution of the dispute, and anything said, proposed, generated or prepared for the purpose of trying to achieve a settlement is to be considered privileged, and shall not be used for any other purpose.
 - (iv) The grievance may be resolved by mutual agreement between the parties. The parties may request that the mediator issue a report including non-binding recommendations.
 - (b) The timelines specified at each step of the grievance and Arbitration process shall apply unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the applicable timelines to accommodate the mediation process.
 - (c) The expenses of the mediator shall be borne equally by both parties.

- 32.08 Either of the parties wishing to submit a grievance to either a Board of Arbitration or a single Arbitrator as may be mutually acceptable, shall notify the other party in writing of its intention to so do. The party giving notification shall include either the name of their nominee or a list of acceptable arbitrators as the case may be.

- 32.09 Within seven (7) days after receipt of notification as provided in clause 32.08 above, the party receiving notification shall advise the other party either of its acceptance of a single Arbitrator or its nominee to an Arbitration Board.

- 32.10 No person shall be appointed as an Arbitrator or as a member of an Arbitration Board if the person is directly affected by the difference or if the person has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the difference.
- 32.11 The appointees nominated by the parties shall, within seven (7) days, endeavour to select a mutually acceptable Chairperson of the Arbitration Board. If they are unable to agree upon the choice of a Chairperson they shall immediately request the Minister of Labour for the Province of Alberta to appoint a Chairperson.
- 32.12 After the Arbitration Board has been formed, or the single Arbitrator appointed, in accordance with the above procedure, a meeting shall be held as soon as reasonably possible to hear such evidence as both parties may desire to present to assure a full, fair hearing. A decision in writing to the parties shall be rendered within sixty (60) days after completion of the hearing.
- 32.13 The Chairperson shall have the authority to render the decision with the concurrence of either of the other members, and a decision thus rendered shall be final and binding on both parties. The decision of a single Arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.
- 32.14 The Arbitration Board or single Arbitrator in its decision shall not alter, amend or change the terms of this Collective Agreement.
- 32.15 Each of the parties to this Collective Agreement shall bear the expenses of its appointee to the Arbitration Board. The fees and expenses of the Chairperson or of a single Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the two (2) parties to the dispute.
- 32.16 Any of the time limits herein contained in arbitration proceedings may be extended if mutually agreed to in writing by the parties.
- 32.17 For the purposes of this Article, periods of time referred to in days shall be deemed to mean such periods of time calculated on consecutive calendar days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Named Holidays which are specified in the Named Holidays Article.

ARTICLE 33: LIABILITY INSURANCE

- 33.01 The Employer will provide adequate liability insurance for all Employees covered by this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 34: OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

- 34.01 (a) There shall be an Occupational Health and Safety Committee which shall be composed of representatives of the Employer and representatives of the Union and may include others representing recognized functional bargaining units. This Committee shall meet once a month, and in addition shall meet within ten

(10) days of receiving a written complaint regarding occupational health or safety. An Employee shall be paid the Employees Basic Hourly Rate of Pay for attendance at Committee meetings.

- (b) Minutes of each meeting shall be taken and shall be approved by the Employer, the Union and other bargaining groups referred to in (a), prior to circulation.
- (c) The purpose of the Occupational Health and Safety Committee is to consider such matters as Occupational Health and Safety and the Union may make recommendations to the Employer in that regard.
- (d) The Occupational Health and Safety Committee shall also consider measures necessary to ensure the security of each Employee on the Employer's premises and the Union may make recommendations to the Employer in that regard.
- (e) Should the recommendations not be implemented and adequate steps taken towards implementation within two (2) months from the date the recommendation is made, the Union may request and shall have the right to present its recommendation(s) to the Regional Director of Extendicare Canada Inc. The Regional Director shall reply in writing to the Union within fourteen (14) calendar days of the presentation by the Union.

34.02 The Employer shall have in place a harassment policy and a policy dealing with aggression towards staff. The Occupational Health and Safety Committee may, if it deems appropriate, make recommendation(s) for revision to these policies.

The Employer shall design and post appropriate signage in support of zero tolerance of staff abuse.

34.03 The Employer shall not unreasonable deny Committee Members access to the workplace to conduct safety inspections.

34.04 The Employer shall:

- (a) conduct ongoing hazard assessments, including those for a pandemic, disaster or emergency response. Such assessment shall review:
 - (i) engineering controls,
 - (ii) administrative policies, procedures and compliance; and
 - (iii) appropriate personal protective devices and other equipment.
- (b) share information with and obtain input from the Occupational Health and Safety Committee pertaining to all hazard assessments.

ARTICLE 35: IN-SERVICE PROGRAMS

- 35.01 (a) The parties to this Collective Agreement recognize the value of continuing in-service education for Employees in the Nursing profession and that the responsibility for such continuing education lies not only with the individual but also with the Employer.
- (b) The Employer reserves the right to identify specific in-service sessions as being compulsory for Employees and those required to attend such sessions shall be paid at the applicable basic hourly rate of pay for attendance. The following in-service programs shall be compulsory and shall be provided to Employees on an annual basis:
- (i) Fire (hands on experience with equipment except where not required by the Institution's established written fire procedures);
 - (ii) Emergency response procedures;
 - (iii) Proper lifting and prevention of back injuries;
 - (iv) Workplace Hazardous Materials Information Systems (WHMIS)
- (c) The Employer shall provide in-service education to ensure that each Employee has the opportunity to attend no less than twenty-three (23) hours per year.
- (d) The Employer shall make available in each Institution no fewer than four (4) current nursing journals.

35.02 Professional Development

The parties recognize the value of continuing professional development.

- 35.03 (a) Upon providing the Employer with satisfactory confirmation that the Employee has attended professional development, the Employee shall be granted at least three (3) professional development day(s) annually paid at the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay.
- (b) The Employer's approval of professional development days shall be subject to the Employer meeting operational requirements.
- (c) An Employee shall be advised, prior to taking any professional development days of any transportation, registration fees, subsistence and other expenses that will be paid by the Employer.
- (d) Professional development days not used in one fiscal year shall not be carried forward into the subsequent fiscal years.

- (e) Applications for paid professional development days shall be made in writing, to the Employer as early as possible. The Employer shall respond to such applications in a timely manner and in any event, within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the request from the Employee.
- 35.04 When the Employer requires an Employee to complete a course, attend a seminar or conference outside of the facility, the Employer will pay the tuition fees and approved expenses including travel and regular pay while in attendance.
- 35.05 (a) The Employer will reimburse Employees (who at the beginning of their next registration year have active registration in the Professional College) two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for their dues if they have accumulated six hundred and eighty-four point six (684.6) or more regular hours actually worked in the previous calendar year.
- (b) Regular hours actually worked in clause (a) includes:
 - (i) Leaves of absence for Union or Local business;
 - (ii) Other leaves of absence of one (1) month or less;
 - (iii) Time on sick leave with pay;
 - (iv) Absences while receiving Worker's Compensation; and
 - (v) Educational leave up to twenty-four (24) months.
 - (c) Professional College dues means dues paid to those who, at the beginning of the next registration year, have active registration with either:
 - (i) The College and Association of Registered Nurses of Alberta (CARNA);
 - (ii) The College of Registered Psychiatric Nurses of Alberta; or
 - (iii) Any alternative Professional College acceptable to the Employer.

ARTICLE 36: PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

- 36.01
- (a) Issues of professional responsibility are suitable for discussion at the Union Management Committee under this Collective Agreement.
 - (b) The purpose in reviewing professional responsibility issues is to allow for the examination of, and for making recommendations regarding, the concerns of Employees or the Employer relative to resident care, including staffing issues.
 - (c) Where either party wishes to discuss a professional responsibility issue it shall provide a written description of the issue to the other party seven (7) working days in advance of the meeting.
 - (d) Agendas for each meeting will be circulated prior to each meeting. Minutes of each meeting will be kept. The minutes of the Committee shall be approved by both parties prior to circulation. Unresolved items from previous meetings will be highlighted and reviewed.
 - (e) The Employee (s) or Local shall discuss issues with the most immediate supervisor in an excluded management position before the matter is discussed at the Committee.
 - (f) The parties will provide available relevant, and non-confidential information to allow for meaningful discussion of the issues. The parties will endeavour to provide this information within thirty (30) days from the original discussion of the particular issue(s).
 - (g) During problem solving discussions, Committee members will collaborate on:
 - (i) defining the issue(s);
 - (ii) identifying root cause(s) of the issue(s);
 - (iii) gathering and reviewing relevant, non-confidential information;
 - (iv) generating potential options for resolution of the issue(s);
 - (v) resolving the issue(s), where possible.
 - (h) To prevent misunderstandings and to assure all issues are dealt with, positions of both parties must be communicated, in writing, and to the Committee.
 - (i) The committee may engage the support of additional subject matter experts to assist with the above discussions.

- (j) Should an issue not be resolved by the Committee, the issue shall be referred to the Regional Director. A resolution meeting between the Local and the Regional Director, or designate(s), shall take place within fifteen (15) working days of the issue being referred to the Regional Director.
- (k) The Regional Director or designate(s) shall reply in writing to the Committee within ten (10) working days of the resolution meeting.
- (l) Should an issue remain unresolved, it shall be referred to an independent mediator from the Alberta roster, who will try to facilitate settlement. For clarity, the mediator does not have the authority to order a resolution.
- (m) Where the parties succeed in reaching a resolution of the issue(s), the agreement shall be confirmed in writing by the parties.

ARTICLE 37: UNION-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

37.01 (a) Composition

The Committee shall be composed of two (2) representatives and an alternate from each of the parties hereto.

(b) Objectives

- (i) To improve the working environment through an exchange of knowledge and information.
- (ii) To provide a method by which to resolve matters of mutual concern.
- (iii) To examine and make recommendations regarding the concerns of Employees relative to resident care.

(c) Jurisdiction

The Committee will not have the power to bind the parties to this Collective Agreement to any decision or conclusion reached in discussion, nor will it have the jurisdiction over any matter contained in this Collective Agreement including its administration or re-negotiation.

- (d) At either parties request in writing, this Committee shall meet within seven (7) working days of such request being given to discuss matters of concern to either party. An agenda for each meeting will be circulated prior to each meeting. Minutes of each meeting will be kept. The minutes will be approved by both parties and then posted on the U.N.A. bulletin board. Unresolved items from previous meeting will be highlighted.

When an item is unresolved for more than three (3) regular meetings, the Union may request and shall have the right to present their concerns to the Regional Director of Extencicare Canada Inc. The Regional Director shall meet with the Union and reply to the Union within thirty (30) days.

- (e) An Employee representative shall not suffer any loss of pay while attending a Union-Management Committee meeting.

RE: SEVERANCE

For the duration of the Collective Agreement expiring December 31, 2021, the Union and the Employer agree to the following severance provisions.

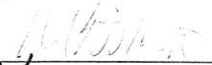

In the event one (1) or more Employees is to be fully laid off, the Employer agrees to the following.

1. The Employer will provide working notice to the affected Employee(s) on the basis of one (1) week of working notice for each full year of service to a maximum of twenty (20) weeks working notice, but in any case, the minimum working notice shall be no less than four (4) weeks. Employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority.
2. An Employee who has received layoff notice in accordance with Article 10 and for whom no alternate vacant position is available shall elect one (1) of the following within twenty-eight (28) calendar days prior to their effective date of layoff.
 - (a) Where an Employee is without new employment as a Registered Nurse or Registered Psychiatric Nurse following the working notice above, then she or he shall continue to receive his/her basic hourly rate of pay for the hours of his/her permanent position (i.e., salary continuance) for a period equal to two (2) weeks for each full year of service (pro-rated for part years of service) to a maximum of thirty (30) weeks payable until (a) he/she achieves employment elsewhere upon which fifty percent (50%) of the balance of the unpaid salary continuance will be paid out, or (b) his/her entitlement is paid out in full, whichever occurs first. Continuation of the Employer share of benefit premiums in the event salary continuance is paid shall be subject to clause 15.02(b).

- (b) Layoff with the right to recall as per Article 15.
3. Any Employee who does not advise the Employer, in writing, of the Employee's decision to accept salary continuance shall be deemed to have selected layoff in accordance with Article 15 of this Collective Agreement.

RE: RETENTION OF EXPERIENCED EMPLOYEES

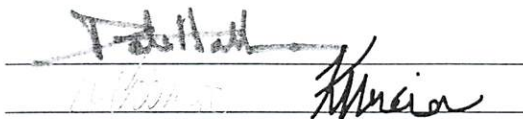

The parties recognize that there are a number of senior, experienced Employees who are eligible for retirement currently or will be in the near future. The parties recognize the contribution of these Employees and wish to take steps to encourage these Employees to remain in the system. Therefore, the following program shall be implemented.

Retention Recognition

- (a) In addition to the Basic Hourly Rate of Pay specified in the Salary Appendix, Employees with twenty (20) or more calendar years of nursing service shall receive a two percent (2%) Special Long Service Pay Adjustment. This adjustment shall form part of the Employee's Basic Hourly Rate of Pay.
- (b) Calendar years of nursing service to determine eligibility for the Special Long Service Pay Adjustment will be based upon the calendar years registered with any nursing licensing body.
- (c) Within ninety (90) days of:
 - (i) date of employment;
 - (ii) achieving twenty (20) calendar years of nursing service;

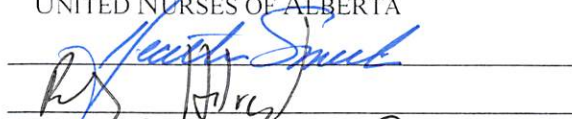

an Employee eligible for a pay adjustment in paragraph (a) above shall provide the Employer with reasonable proof of the Employee's calendar years of nursing service, as described in paragraph (b) above. An Employee who requires further time to obtain reasonable proof shall, within the ninety (90) days above, provide the Employer with written notice of their efforts, in which case, the Employer shall provide a reasonable extension of time for providing such proof.

RE: "RED CIRCLING" EMPLOYEES PREVIOUSLY ASSIGNED CHARGE PAY (DAYS)

WHEREAS it is the desire of the parties to maintain the previous compensation for current Employees who previously received charge pay during day shifts, but may not receive charge pay.

NOW THEREFORE the parties agree as follows:

For Locals #145 (Mayerthorpe) and Local #168 (Holyrood):

1. Effective July 28, 2008 the Employer shall provide to the Union a list of all Employees who are employed by the Employer and who would have been eligible to receive charge pay.

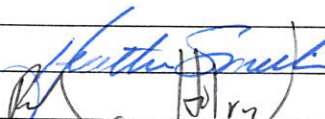

For Locals #117 (Eaux Claires), #135 (Athabasca), #143 (Vulcan), #170 (Leduc), #189 (Fort MacLeod), and #215 (Viking):

1. Effective July 8, 2008 the Employer shall provide to the Union a list of all Employees who are employed by the Employer and who would have been eligible to receive charge pay.
2. The Employer agrees to continue the proactive and payment of day shift charge pay for current registered Employees at a rate of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per hour. This payment will only apply to the day shifts that are currently assigned charge pay. If an Employee listed in item 1 is assigned charge pay, they will be paid in accordance with Article 16.
3. The parties agree that this will not apply to any new Employees who are hired after July 8, 2008. If the Employer assigns a new Employee charge responsibilities they will be paid in accordance with Article 16.
4. The parties also agree that an Employee shall not receive a premium in accordance with clause 16.01, clause 28.01, or clause 28.02 concurrent with receiving this "red circling" provision.

RE: EXTENDED SHIFTS

As of August 1, 2017, and subject to the expiry of the UNA/Athabasca & UNA/Mayerthorpe, UNA/Viking Collective Agreement ending December 31, 2021, the following provisions shall apply to nurses working extended shifts.

1. Where the Employer and the Union agree to implement a system employing extended shifts, they shall evidence such agreement by signing a document indicating the applicable positions subject to the provisions for extended shifts.
2. Either party may terminate the agreement set out under #1 above by providing to the other party twelve (12) weeks notice in writing of such intent.
3. Where an extended work day system is implemented or discontinued, the resulting change to the hours per shift and shifts per shift cycle of a Part-time Employee shall not be deemed to be a violation of clause 9.10. Where such change occurs, the Employer shall issue a revised letter to the affected Employee(s) within ten (10) calendar days of the date of change.
4. The Employer and the Union acknowledge and confirm that, with the exception of those amendments hereinafter specifically detailed, when the extended work day is implemented, all other articles of this Collective Agreement shall remain in full force and effect as between the parties.
5. Full-Time Employees:
 - (a) Regular hours of work for Full-time Employees, exclusive of meal periods, shall be:
 - (i) eleven point two five (11.25) consecutive hours per day; and
 - (ii) seventy-eight point seven five (78.75) hours bi-weekly averaged over one (1) complete cycle of an Employee's shift schedule period.

Except where overtime is authorized, a regular shift shall be twelve point two five (12.25) hours per day and shall include three (3) coffee breaks of fifteen (15) minutes and two (2) unpaid meal periods of thirty (30) minutes each. Two (2) or more meal periods or coffee breaks may be combined by agreement between the Employee and the Employer.

The Employer and the Union agree that meal periods shall not be scheduled to occur in the first or last hour of the shift except by mutual agreement between the Employer and Employee.

- (b) Except in cases of emergency or by mutual agreement between an Employee and the Employer, shift schedules shall provide for:
 - (i) at least twenty-two point five (22.5) hours off duty on a shift change over between extended shifts;
 - (ii) at least two (2) consecutive days of rest per week for Full-time Employees;
 - (iii) two (2) weekends off duty in each four (4) week period. "Weekend" shall mean a Saturday and the following Sunday. The period of time off must be at least fifty six (56) hours. Where possible, Employee's shall not be required to work beyond two thousand (2000) hours on the day preceding the designated days of rest when designated days of rest fall on a weekend;
 - (iv) not more than four (4) consecutive extended shifts nor more than four (4) extended shifts per week; and,
 - (v) where possible, one (1) weekend in each four (4) shall be an extended weekend. Extended weekend shall mean a Saturday and the following Sunday assuring a minimum of seventy-nine point seven five (79.75) hours off duty.
 - (vi) clause 7.05 (a), (d) and (e) of the collective agreement do not apply.

6. Part-time Employees:

- (a) Regular hours of work for Part-time Employees, exclusive of meal periods, shall be scheduled by the Employer but shall be less than those for Full-time Employees. The regular hours of work shall be:
 - (i) eleven point two five (11.25) consecutive hours per day; and
 - (ii) less than seventy-eight point seven five (78.75) hours bi-weekly averaged over one (1) complete cycle of an Employee's shift schedule period.

Except where overtime is authorized, a regular shift shall be twelve point two five (12.25) hours per day and shall include three (3) coffee breaks of fifteen (15) minutes and two (2) unpaid meal periods of thirty (30) minutes each. Two (2) or more meal periods or coffee breaks may be combined by agreement between the Employee and the Employer.

The Employer and the Union agree that meal periods shall not be scheduled to occur in the first or last hour of the shift except by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Employee.

- (b) Except in cases of emergency or by mutual agreement between an Employee and the Employer, shift schedules shall provide for:
 - (i) at least twenty-two point five (22.5) hours off duty on a shift change over between extended shifts;
 - (ii) at least fifteen (15) days of rest in a six (6) week cycle for Part-time Employees with at least two (2) consecutive days of rest per week;
 - (iii) two (2) weekends off duty in each four (4) week period. "Weekend" shall mean a Saturday and the following Sunday. The period of time off must be at least fifty-six (56) hours. Where possible, Employee's shall not be required to work beyond two thousand (2000) hours on the day preceding the designated days of rest when designated days of rest fall on a weekend;
 - (iv) not more than four (4) consecutive extended shifts nor more than four (4) extended shifts per week; and,
 - (v) Where possible, one (1) weekend in each four (4) shall be an extended weekend. Extended weekend shall mean a Saturday and the following Sunday assuring a minimum of seventy-nine point seven five (79.75) hours off duty.
 - (vi) clause 7.05 (a), (d) and (e) of the Collective Agreement do not apply.

7. Overtime: Amend clause 8.01 to read as follows:

Overtime at the rate of two times (2X) the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay shall be paid to all Employees for:

- (a) All hours worked in excess of eleven point two-five (11.25) consecutive hours;

RE: ON-CALL ASSIGNMENTS

As of August 1, 2017 and subject to the expiry of the UNA/Athabasca Collective Agreement ending December 31, 2021, the following provisions shall apply in the event a nurse is assigned on-call duty.

1. On-call assignment:
 - (a) covers those periods of time when an Employee is not on active duty in the facility, and
 - (b) during which time the Employee will be available to respond without undue delay to calls from and/or report to the facility in the event he/she is called during the on-call assignment.
2. The Employer shall set out the policies and procedures regarding the assignment of on-call and the duties of the nurse during on-call assignment within sixty (60) days of the date of exchange of written notice of ratification.
3. On-call assignments shall be posted in advance consistent with the scheduling provisions set out in clause 7.02 save and except for unexpected on-call needs. On-call assignment for unexpected on-call needs shall be assigned only with the agreement of the Employee unless at least fourteen (14) days notice has been given.
 - (a) The Employer will endeavour to avoid assigning an Employee to be on-call on the evening shift immediately prior to or during his/her scheduled days off other than those referred to in 4(b) below.
 - (b) Where there are Employees working on a Saturday, Sunday or Named Holiday, where possible, an Employee not scheduled to work on that day shall not be assigned on-call duty for that day or for the evening prior to that day. The Employer shall endeavour to avoid placing an Employee on-call on the evening prior to vacation or the evening prior to an approved leave of absence.

5. Notwithstanding mutual agreement between the Employee and the Employer, no Employee shall be assigned on-call for:
 - (a) more than seven (7) consecutive days;
 - (b) more than seventy-two (72) consecutive hours; and,
 - (c) more than two (2) weekends in a five (5) week period.
6. When an Employee is assigned on-call:
 - (a) he/she shall be paid three dollars and thirty cents ($3.30) per hour for each hour of on-call assignment; and,
 - (b) on a day of rest or Named Holiday, he/she shall be paid four dollars and fifty cents ($4.50) per hour for each hour of on-call assignment.
7. Where an Employee is called back to the facility during the on-call assignment, he/she shall be paid for two (2) hours or the actual time worked, whichever is greater, at two times (2X) his/her basic hourly rate of pay. An Employee called back to duty will be permitted to leave upon completion of the procedure for which the Employee was called back. However, any further requests for procedures received by an Employee prior to leaving following completion of the work required on the initial call shall be considered one call for the purpose of determining call back pay.
8. When an Employee is required to be on-call, the Employee shall be supplied with a paging device at no cost. The paging device shall remain the property of the Employer.
