Affiliate Boards/Committees

REFERENCE: DATE OF ORIGIN: JUNE 2023 LAST AMENDED: EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING - JUNE 2023 REVIEWED: EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING - NOVEMBER 2024

UNA members may attend affiliate boards, committees and caucuses as per affiliate policies and bylaws. See Funding #10 “Expenses”.

1.0 Elected Affiliate Equity Caucus Positions

UNA members in good standing who self-identify and are elected at an affiliate equity caucus as the representative to the affiliate’s executive council shall be funded by UNA as per Funding #10 during their elected term to attend meetings for which their presence is required for the purposes of quorum, or such meetings as authorized by the Executive Officers.

Caucus representatives funded by UNA shall submit a written report to each UNA executive board meeting.

2.0 Appointed Affiliate Committee or Board Positions - See Flowchart 1

UNA reserves the right to appoint its representatives to committees or boards of affiliated or allied organizations as deemed necessary by the executive board.

2.1 Executive Board Members

Members of the UNA executive board receive right of first refusal when appointments to affiliate boards and committees are made. Executive board members will be asked to express interest in filling such positions as vacancies arise. Should more executive board members express interest than there are vacancies, the executive board will vote to elect the UNA representative(s) and/or alternates to the position(s).

Appointees shall be entitled to funding as per Funding #10 to attend meetings for which their presence is required for the purposes of quorum, or such meetings as authorized by the Executive Officers. They will be entitled to remain on the affiliate board or committee for the duration of their UNA executive board term (maximum of two years between requests for expressions of interest) or the length of term as determined by the affiliate, whichever is shorter. There is no limit to the number of terms that can be served. Appointees shall submit a written report to each UNA executive board meeting.

2.2 UNA Members

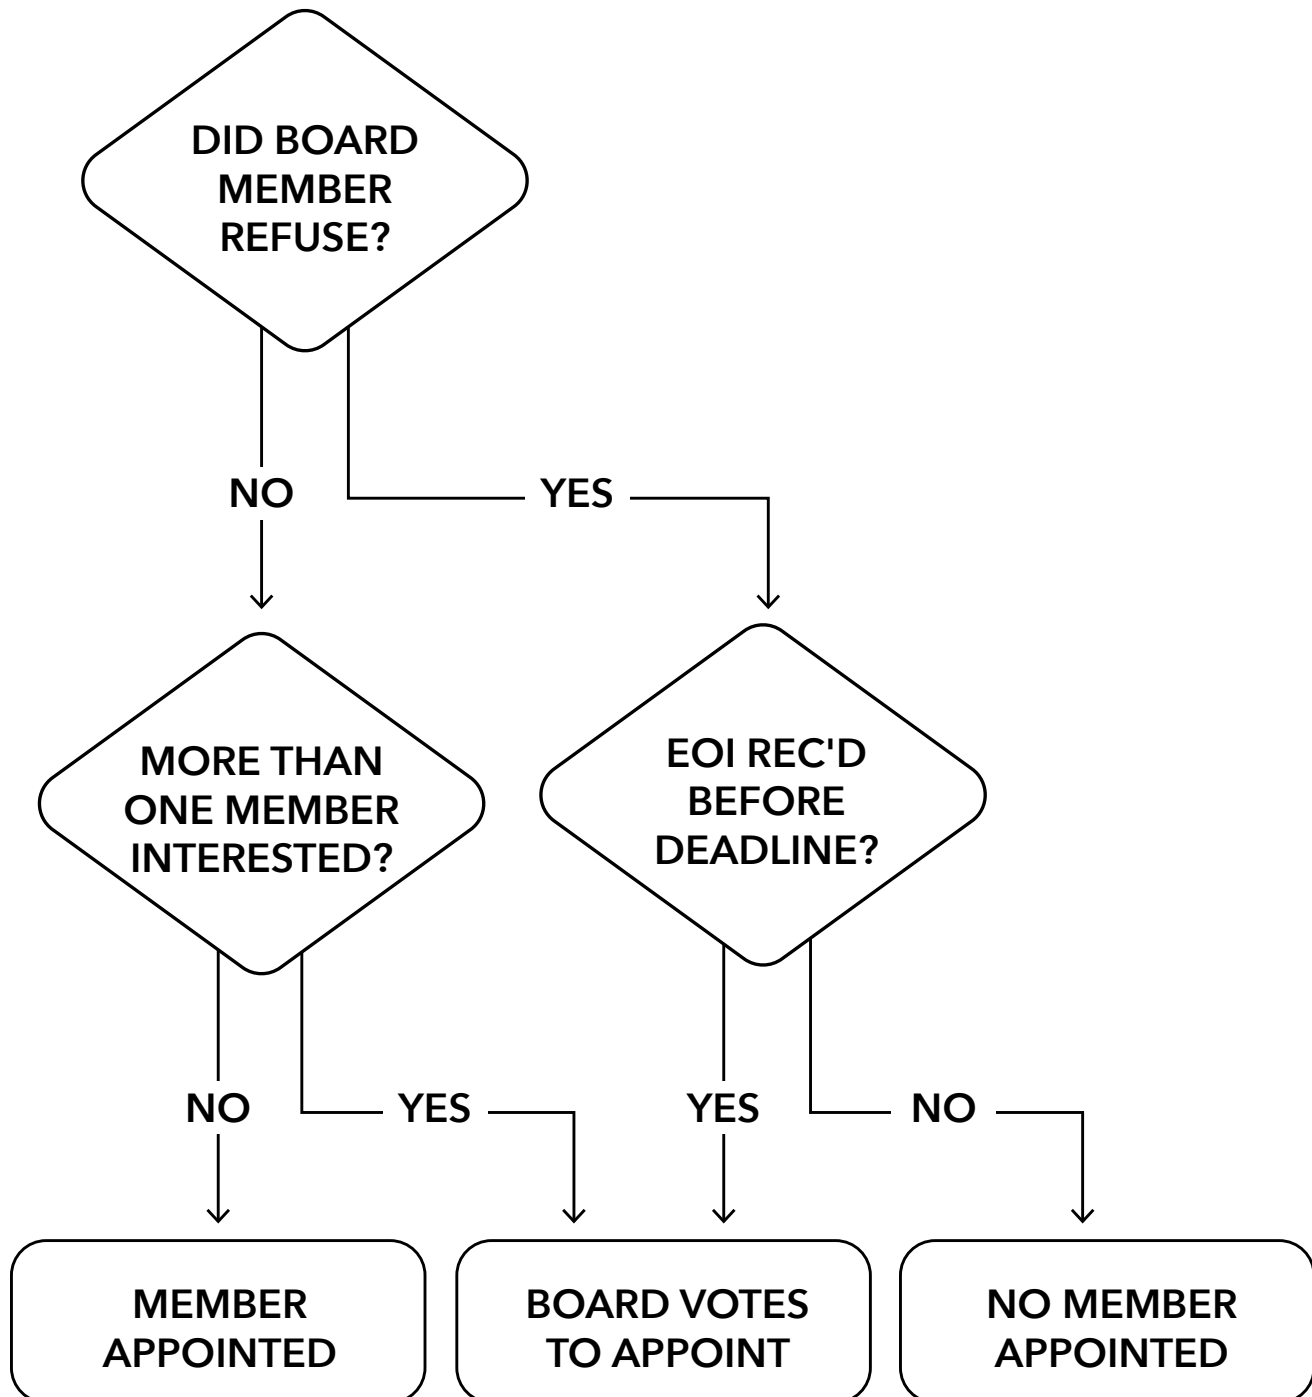

Where no executive board member opts or is eligible to fill such positions the executive board may post available positions on UNANet as they arise to be filled by UNA members in good standing. Members may submit a written expression of interest to the executive board by the deadline stated in the notice. Should more members express interest than there are vacancies, the executive board will vote to elect the UNA representative(s) and/or alternates to the position(s). If no expressions of interest are received by the deadline the position will remain vacant until such time as the executive board decides to re-initiate the appointment process.

Appointees shall be entitled to funding as per Funding #10 to attend meetings for which their presence is required for the purposes of quorum, or such meetings as authorized by the Executive Officers. They will be entitled to remain on the affiliate board or committee for the length of term as determined by the affiliate, after which time the position will be re-offered to UNA executive board members on a right of first refusal basis. There is no limit to the number of terms that can be served. The appointed representative shall submit a written report to each UNA executive board meeting.
