TREATY 6

United Nurses of Alberta respectfully acknowledges that the land on which we gather is located on the territory of Treaty 6 and is a home, traditional meeting ground and travelling route for many Indigenous peoples, including the Cree, Dene, Blackfoot, Saulteaux, Nakota Sioux and Inuit, as well as the Métis and many others whose histories, languages, and cultures continue to influence our community and our service as members of the nursing profession. Our recognition of this land is an act of reconciliation and an expression of our gratitude to those on whose territory we reside or are visiting.

TREATY 7

United Nurses of Alberta respectfully acknowledges that the land on which we gather is located on the territory of Treaty 7 and is a home, traditional meeting ground and travelling route for many Indigenous peoples, including the Blackfoot Confederacy: Kainai, Piikani and Siksika; the Tsuut'ina First Nation; Stoney Nakoda First Nation; and the Métis and many others whose histories, languages, and cultures continue to influence our community and our service as members of the nursing profession. Our recognition of this land is an act of reconciliation and an expression of our gratitude to those on whose territory we reside or are visiting.

United Nurses of Alberta respectfully acknowledges that the land on which we gather is located on the territory of Treaty 8 and is a home, traditional meeting ground and travelling route for many Indigenous peoples, including the Cree, Dene and Inuit, as well as the Métis and many others whose histories, languages, and cultures continue to influence our community and our service as members of the nursing profession. Our recognition of this land is an act of reconciliation and an expression of our gratitude to those on whose territory we reside or are visiting.

ALL ALBERTA

United Nurses of Alberta respectfully acknowledges and gives thanks for the Indigenous peoples of Alberta – whose traditional territory encompasses Treaties 6, 7 and 8, parts of Treaties 4 and 10, and the homes, travelling routes and meeting grounds of many whose histories, languages, and cultures continue to influence our communities and our service as members of the nursing profession. We also acknowledge all Indigenous peoples, the original owners of the country we call Canada. Our recognition of this land is an act of reconciliation and an expression of our gratitude to those on whose territory we reside or are visiting.
