Dear Leland McEwen,

AHS reached out on May 7 to discuss the possibility of extensions for labour relations-related matters. We've arrived at the following language:

The Parties agree to extend timelines from May 8 to June 10, 2023, for conducting investigations, filing and movement of all grievances and arbitrations, and Professional Responsibility and Occupational Health and Safety Concerns. The Parties recognize that there may be specific situations where immediate action is required, or the parties mutually agree to proceed with an issue. Generally speaking, the parties agree that the intent of this extension is to ensure that the appropriate resources are allocated to keep staff and patients safe during the wildfires that threaten numerous communities across the province.

Please sign in the space provided to confirm your agreement.

Leland McEwen

Signed,
