

2013 AFL May Day Solidarity Award

The Alberta Federation of Labour invites our affiliated unions and labour councils and committees to submit nominations for the 2013 May Day Solidarity Award. Your nominees should be a union member or a group of individuals who have made a recognized contribution in the areas of peace, social justice and workers' rights. Please include a detailed biography with your nominations, which includes specific contributions to the labour and social justice movements.

The annual May Day Solidarity Award was created in 1989 and is given to an Alberta trade unionist for his/her contributions in advancing workers' rights within and outside the labour movement.

The deadline for accepting nominations for the award is Thursday, February 28, 2013. All submissions should be directed to the AFL Executive Council at the address below. The recipient of this award will be determined at the March 2013 Executive Council meeting and the award ceremony will take place in April at the AFL 2013 Convention in Edmonton.
